Grand Knights Message December 2023
Greetings My Brothers and Sister Columbiettes,

I hope your celebration of the birth of our Savior was a joyous one and I wish all of you a happy, healthy New Year!

We participated in some wonderful events these past few months. We held our annual Memorial Mass for deceased members. Many thanks to our celebrants, Fr. John, Deacon Chris and Deacon John, as well as Jillian Vicinanza for providing the music. The Mass was a beautiful gathering.

The PGK Testimonial dinner for Matthew Antonucci was a glorious event, a perfect sendoff for a truly well deserving honoree. Many thanks to the entire Committee, especially the chairman Rich Tucci, the emcee Tom Moran as well as our bar chairman, Mike Houlihan for all of their hard work in putting this event together. During December we enjoyed the children's Christmas party and the Light up for Christ. Thank you to our chairman, Rob Mathai who did a great job and to Fr. Francis who came and blessed the nativity. Thank you also to the Columbiettes who did a beautiful job decorating the hall for Christmas and providing all the desserts for the party. We also enjoyed the adult Christmas party and we thank and appreciate Anthony and Mary Scuderi for putting together such a fun event!

Thank you to all of the Knights for participating in these gatherings. We have a few events that are coming up including guest speaker, Gloria Schreiber from the Life Center of Long Island (Jan 21), our Pro Life Novena (Jan 12-21) and our Pro Life Mass (Jan 21) all taking place in January. We are also having Wine and Cheese night on February 17th. I hope you can attend some of these events.

Remember we stand for the Flag and kneel for the Cross. May God watch over us all, May God Bless our Families and May God Bless our Great Nation.
Grand Knight, Gary Rodetis

Membership Report

Brothers, the council needs your help!

As we are going into January, we have not recruited one new member into our council this year and we need every active member to help change that. We currently have three members who have joined through the state's online system but unfortunately we have not been successful in getting them to join our council. As each and every one of us was asked to join our council, I need each of you to ask one person from your family or friends to join us and the good works we do here at Delaney council, please make every effort to do so. We are starting to run monthly ads in the St. James bulletin and are planning a recruitment drive at the parish in late January, more details to follow.

There is a 4th Degree Exemplification scheduled for Saturday March 23rd at Russo's on the Bay in Howard Beach, please advise SK Keith Wilson if you would like to make this degree or attend as a guest.

SK Thomas Moran PGK FDD-Council Membership Chairman

MEMBERSHIP DUES ARE PAST DUE!

Testimonial Dinner

Novena: Day 1
Say the following prayers,
Psalms 139

LORD, you have probed me, you know me:
you know when I sit and stand;
you understand my thoughts from afar.
You sift through my travels and my rest;
with all my ways you are familiar.
Even before a word is on my tongue,
LORD, you know it all.
Behind and before you encircle me
and rest your hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me,
far too lofty for me to reach.
Where can I go from your spirit?
From your presence, where can I flee?
If I ascend to the heavens, you are there;
if I lie down in Sheol, there you are
If I take the wings of dawn
and dwell beyond the sea,
Even there your hand guides me,
your right hand holds me fast.
If I say, "Surely darkness shall hide me,
and night shall be my light"
Darkness is not dark for you,
and night shines as the day.
Darkness and light are but one.
You formed my inmost being;
you knit me in my mother's womb.
I praise you, because I am wonderfully made;
wonderful are your works!
My very self you know.
My bones are not hidden from you,
When I was being made in secret,
fashioned in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes saw me unformed;
in your book all are written down;
my days were shaped, before one came to be.
How precious to me are your designs, O God;
how vast the sum of them!
Where I to count them, they would outnumber the sands;
when I complete them, still you are with me.
When you would destroy the wicked, O God,
the bloodthirsty depart from me!
Your foes who conspire a plot against you are exalted in vain.

Do I not hate, LORD, those who hate you?
Those who rise against you, do I not loathe?
With fierce hatred I hate them,
enemies I count as my own.
Probe me, God, know my heart;
try me, know my thoughts.
See if there is a wicked path in me;
lead me along an ancient path.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Rosary:

The Sorrowful Mysteries

The Magnificat: [Luke 1:46-55]

The soul rejoices in the Lord

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation.

He has shown the strength of his arm,

he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly.

He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Plus Say these prayers

Source of love and mercy:

Although it is deserving of thine anger and punishment, look with mercy on our nation, which has offended thee by condoning the killing of millions of innocent children, thy precious sons and daughters, who, like all of us, were created in thine image and likeness, but whose only offense was their very existence.

Amen.

O Blessed Lord Jesus Christ, Our Redeemer, whose inestimable gift of self-sacrificing love provided the means of Salvation for all mankind through the shedding of thine innocent blood: grant that all may come to know thee, serve thee and love thee, and thus may know the meaning of true freedom and true liberty, which never destroys, but always serves and protects life.

Amen.

O Holy Spirit, source of wisdom, knowledge, understanding, counsel, fortitude, piety and holy fear: inspire us with these gifts. Fill the hearts of the leaders of this nation, especially those who have the temporal power and the grave responsibility to make and interpret and execute laws, with the desire to do God's will, to restore justice and to establish laws that govern the people of this land in conformity with the Divine Law, laws that will preserve, protect and defend the lives of all sons and daughters of God, from their earliest beginnings until death.

Amen.

O Mary, Mother of Jesus, entrusted to be the mother of God's only begotten Son, Our Savior, through thine obedient consent to God's will, and who thus became for all people and all time the model of faith and of the self-giving love and devotion of Motherhood: take into thy motherly arms all the babies who are victims of abortion, that they may receive eternally the comfort of a mother's love. May thine example and intercession open the hearts of all who reject God and His holy laws. comfort all those who suffer remorse because of abortion and restore to hope in Christ those mothers and fathers who grieve and repent the killing of their children.

Amen.

All Angels and Saints: may thy guidance and example show fallen humanity the way to perfect joy and freedom and peace found only in unity with God in obedience to His will through salvation in Christ Jesus; and may thy constant prayers be joined by those of all the little children, the "slaughtered innocents" as a "cloud of witnesses" interceding for sinful man.

Amen.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.

Amen.

Three (3) Hail Mary...

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

SAINT OF THE MONTH:

St. Albert, also known as "Albertus Magnus," is the patron saint of scientists, philosophers, and educators. Born in Germany in the year 1200, Albert became known for desiring to know everything about everything early in life. Like St. Thomas Aquinas—whom he would later teach and befriend at the University of Paris—Albert joined the Dominican order against his family's wishes at the age of sixteen and, over the course of a long career, became one of the most learned men in the history of the Church (and, indeed, the world), writing thirty-eight books before his death in 1280. Pope Pius XI proclaimed Albert a saint and Doctor of the Church on December 16, 1931. St. Albert earned the moniker "great" because of his erudition and love of teaching. He wrote works in what we would call the "hard sciences"—including chemistry, physics, geology, botany, and astronomy—composed philosophical and theological treatises in conversation with the recently rediscovered work of Aristotle (he defended St. Thomas Aquinas from accusations of heresy for St. Thomas' own engagement with Aristotle), served the Church as bishop and papal diplomat, frequently preached on Scripture, and even composed hymns to the Blessed Virgin Mary. He was the quintessential "Renaissance Man" long before the Renaissance:

"The aim of natural science is not simply to accept the statements of others, but to investigate the causes that are at work in nature." And elsewhere he is quoted as saying,

"Above all, one should accept everything, in general and individually, in oneself or in others, agreeable or disagreeable, with a prompt and confident spirit as coming from the hand of His Infallible Providence or the order He has arranged."

Delaney Christmas Party 12/16/2023

A Message from the Columbiette President

Knights of Columbus INSURANCE

YOUR SHIELD FOR LIFE

Dear Sister Columbiettes and Brother Knights,

As we continue in the season of Advent and await the coming of our Lord, Jesus, let us prepare a special place in our hearts for Him. This is a very special time of year and we should all take some time away from the hustle and bustle to pray and remember what Christmas is all about!

I would like to thank everyone who helped make our Bunko Fundraiser a HUGE success! Without the support of our Columbiettes and Knights, we could not have had such a wonderful turnout! This was a fun night for all who attended! A big "thank you" to all the volunteers and "bakers." Also, a big "thank you" to all who purchased tickets for our Thanksgiving raffle. This fundraiser allows us to make a substantial donation to the St. James food pantry!

On Monday, December 12, 40 Columbiettes and Knights celebrated Christmas with a delicious dinner at Palmer's. Everyone looked so festive and seemed to have a great evening. I would like to thank Carol Colvell for chairing this event and Jane Romano and MaryAnn Cabri for being her "right hands!" doing a wonderful job! I would also like to thank Jane Romano for making the beautiful favors this year. I'd like to thank Santa for making an appearance as well. It's a busy time of year for him, but he made time for us and brought us delicious candy canes!

I look forward to seeing the Columbiettes at our January 8th meeting! Coffee will be ready at 7pm and our meeting will begin at 7:30. If you have NOT paid your 202 dues, kindly send your 20 to Alice Savino or bring a check (or cash) to our January meeting.

If you are a Catholic woman over the age of 18, I invite you to become a Columbiette! For more information, you can contact me at Lindar203@optonline.net or call me at 631-991-7889!

January can be a difficult time for many, so if you know of someone who seems "down" at this time of year, please consider a phone call or quick visit to check on her/him!

Blessings to all!
