March-April 2023 Edition Spring Forward with Love and Gratitude!

From the Desk of the Grand Knight
Matthew Antonucci

To My Brother Knights, Sister Columbiettes and the entire Delaney Council Family,

“...Complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of the same mind...” Phil 2:2. Once again the members of the council and the parishioners of St. James have lived the message of Jesus Christ. Our winter coat drive yielded over 750 coats to help the St. Martin de Porres Marianist School families. Some of our other charitable contributions have included monies toward the K of C Wheelchair drive, Birth Right, Tunnels for Towers, the Life Center of Long Island, St. James Food Pantry and Cross Catholic Outreach. This past month we enjoyed a fun filled time at Italian Night. Big shout out to Co-Chairmen Keith and Chick, to Madam President Debbie and the wonderful committee of both Knights and Columbiettes. Our Sisters stepped up big time with fund raising efforts and an amazing dessert table.

On the Conference side Elections for the next NY State Deputy confirmed Anthony Ippolito on February 5th. And I am very proud to formally nominate our own PGK Tom Moran to the position of Nassau Conference Chairman.

Upcoming: We have the St Patrick’s Party on March 18th, looking at having a Delaney Night Karaoke in April, the annual Woodloch weekend and then the NYS Convention where I will represent the Msgr. William A. Delaney Council.

“...Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others...” Phil 2:4.

Upcoming Lent and Easter: May I suggest you give a try this year to share in the services during the Blessed Triduum; Holy Thursday Mass; Good Friday Service and Adoration of the Cross; and the Easter Vigil Mass. A great way to boost your faith.

May your faith be enriched by the Easter season and may the blessing of the Risen Christ be with you.

Always yours in Christ,

Matt Antonucci, Grand Knight

Try to be less judgmental and more forgiving, do something that will help bring us closer to Christ.

Dear Sister Columbiettes and Brother Knights,

We're already into the March/April edition of the Knight Light. The time and year is flying by with so much joy and success.

Knights of Columbus INSURANCE YOUR SHIELD FOR LIFE

I'm so proud to say that our Italian Night/Ladies recognition night was a huge success. We were sold out; the guests were thrilled. Joan and all of the ladies put out a spectacular desert display. And it warmed my heart the way that so very many of you simply jumped at the opportunity to work hard behind the scenes to help us organize this spectacular party.

Special thanks and love go to Chick & Grace; MaryAnn Capparelli; MaryAnn Cabri; Rosemary & Pete; Maria & Al; Marian & Stan and of course Alice and Joan. And thank you to PGK Keith Wilson our Co Chair with the Columbiettes who organized the party.

Thank you to our raffle sponsors, Mohegan Sun, Chapey Funeral Home, O'Shea Funeral Home and Bottles on Broadway.

Our next major event is being chairs by Pat Yurasits and MaryAnn Cabri on April 30th at Hartigan House. Our Past President and Pat's daughter's band, "4 Ways From Sunday" will entertain us with wonderful live dance music while we eat drink and be merry, and raise a little more money for charity.

The Yurasits family has spent decades of dedication to our council. They are doing this fundraiser for us. We've guaranteed at least 75 people and can accommodate many more. For me, please, I'd like to see a sell out on a Sunday afternoon.

Our next meeting is Monday March 13, 2023. Mr. Andrew McClure from Tunnel to Towers will be our guest speaker at our meeting. I would like to invite all Brother Knights who would like to join us to please come down to hear Andrew speak about a growing problem of Homelessness of Veterans and suicide in our area. You are all welcome to stay after Andrew's presentation and chat with him in the lounge while the ladies continue our short meeting. Please be in attendance no later than 6:45 pm.

Please also remember to mark your calendars for the upcoming St. Patrick's Day party at Delaney Hall run by PGK Tom Moran. A good time is guaranteed at a party run by Tom. Information available in this flyer. Stay well and God Bless all.

Love always,
Your Columbiette President,
Debbie

St. Conon of Naso
 Feast day: March 28; Patron: of Naso, Italy Birth: 1139; Death: 1236
 While praying in church, Conon, a Basilian monk of Naso, Sicily, resolved to make a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. In the Holy Land, he experienced a vision of a serpent coiling itself around the throat of a certain priest. At once Conon went to the priest and related the vision as a warning to him. The priest confessed to Conon that he had hoarded money for himself. Conon persuaded him to give all his riches to the poor. After returning to Sicily, Conon healed a boy afflicted with apoplexy. In 1571, over three centuries after Conon's death, the city of Naso was stricken with a famine resulting from stormy weather that had prevented both the harvesting of the grain crop and the import of provisions by ship. The people thereupon invoked the intercession of Conon. As a sea captain was preparing to sail with a load of grain from a Sicilian port, Conon appeared to him in a vision and asked him to change his destination to a port near Naso. Torn between his fear of the rough seas and his reverential fear of the vision, the skipper in the end did as Conon had asked and completed the voyage safely. The grain from his ship reached Naso, ending the famine.
