-St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Greetings Brother Knights, Sister Columbiettes and Delaney Council Family,

I hope this message finds you and your families in good health and spirits. The last few months have been busy and we have accomplished a lot. Our Coats for Kids program was a great success collecting over 500 warm winter clothing items which were donated to St. Martin de Porres school in Uniondale. Many thanks to Paul McMahon and Steve Mendyk for their tireless efforts and thank you to all of you who made donations to such a worthy cause. We were able to make a few charitable gifts too, including donations to the Life Center of Long Island, Mamas House, St. James Food Pantry and the KOC wheelchair mission. On February 15th we introduced the COR program during our Council meeting. The response from those who attended was extremely positive and I believe all in attendance benefited from the discussions and message. We will be having another segment of COR at the March 14th Council meeting. In addition, we continue to enjoy fraternal functions that bring us together as a family. We held a Karaoke Night, had a guest speaker from the Long Island Life Center, and we enjoyed a wonderful evening of Wine tasting. Many thanks to the Winkler family, who did a terrific job! We are looking forward to the 300 Club party on March 2nd and to the St. Pats and St Joseph's Party to be held on March 16th.

The Liturgical season of Lent is upon us and Easter will be here shortly. Please try to participate in some of the Lenten programs offered at St. James Parish; including a Lenten mission every Wednesday evening at 7:30pm and Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 3pm and 7pm. I encourage you to attend the Masses and prayer services during Holy Week including Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil or Easter Sunday Masses.

Always remember we stand for the flag, kneel for the cross. May God watch over us all, bless our families and may God bless our great country.

Grand Knight, Gary Rodetis

Knight of the Month, Deacon Chris Daniello

Saint of the Month:

The Conversion of Saint Paul the Apostle Feast

“And he said, “The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, to see the Just One and to hear a voice from his mouth; for you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name,”

(Acts 22:14-16).

Today’s feast honors St. Paul’s conversion on the road to Damascus. It stands as a model for the extraordinary power of the Risen Christ, the grace that comes through His merciful love, and the oneness of all believers in the body of Christ. St. Paul’s conversion highlights that we are called to be radically transformed, new people after our encounter with Christ. As Ananias instructed St. Paul to do after our life has been renewed, we are called to rise and witness to the Just One’s divine power.

For love of Christ, Paul bore every burden

Paul, more than anyone else, has shown us what man really is, and in what our nobility consists, and of what virtue this particular animal is capable. Each day he aimed ever higher; each day he rose up with greater ardor and faced with new eagerness the dangers that threatened him. He summed up his attitude in the words: I forget what is behind me and push on to what lies ahead. When he saw death imminent, he bade others share his joy:

Rejoice and be glad with me! And when danger, injustice and abuse threatened, he said: I am content with weakness, mistreatment and persecution. These he called the weapons of righteousness, thus telling us that he derived immense profit from them. Thus, amid the traps set for him by his enemies, with exultant heart he turned their every attack into a victory for himself; constantly beaten, abused and cursed, he boasted of it as though he were celebrating a triumphal procession and taking trophies home, and offered thanks to God for it all: Thanks be to God who is always victorious in us! This is why he was far more eager for the shameful abuse that his zeal in preaching brought upon him than we are for the most pleasing honors, more eager for death than we are for life, for poverty than we are for wealth; he yearned for toil far more than others yearn for rest after toil.

The one thing he feared, indeed dreaded, was to offend God; nothing else could sway him. Therefore, the only thing he really wanted was always to please God.

The most important thing of all to him, however, was that he knew himself to be loved by Christ. Enjoying this love, he considered himself happier than anyone else; were he without it, it would be no satisfaction to be the friend of principalities and powers. He preferred to be thus loved and be the least of all, or even to be among the damned, than to be without that love and be among the great and honored.

To be separated from that love was, in his eyes, the greatest and most extraordinary of torments; the pain of that loss would alone have been hell, and endless, unbearable torture.

So too, in being loved by Christ he thought of himself as possessing life, the world, the angels, present and future, the kingdom, the promise and countless blessings. Apart from that love nothing saddened or delighted him; for nothing earthly did he regard as bitter or sweet.

Paul set no store by the things that fill our visible world, any more than a man sets value on the withered grass of the field. As for tyrannical rulers or the people enraged against him, he paid them no more heed than gnats. Death itself and pain and whatever torments might come were but child’s play to him, provided that thereby he might bear some burden for the sake of Christ.

Hope you have a BLESSED DAY TODAY

MANY OTHER SIR KNIGHTS WERE ALSO MEMBERS OF THE HONOR GUARD AND SET A GREAT EXAMPLE OF LEADERSHIP THROUGH PATRIOTISM AND AMERICANISM. I LOOK FROWARD TO SEEING SOME OF OUR SIR KNIGHTS AT THE UPCOMING MEETINGS.

FRATERNALLY,

KEITH WILSON, PFN -FOURTH DEGREE CHAIRMAN-516-633-1435

Even in time of persecution let the cross be your joy

The Catholic Church glories in every deed of Christ. Her supreme glory, however, is the cross. Well aware of this, Paul says:

God forbid that I glory in anything but the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ! At Siloam, there was a sense of wonder, and rightly so. A man born blind recovered his sight. But of what importance is this, when there are so many blind people in the world? Lazarus rose from the dead, but even this affected only Lazarus. What of those countless numbers who have died because of their sins? Those five miraculous loaves fed five thousand people. Yet this is a small number compared to those all over the world who were starved by ignorance. After eighteen years a woman was freed from the bondage of Satan. But are we not all shackled by the chains of our own sins?

For us all, however, the cross is the crown of victory! It has brought light to those blinded by ignorance. It has released those enslaved by sin. Indeed, it has redeemed the whole of mankind!

Do not, then, be ashamed of the cross of Christ; rather, glory in it. Although it is a stumbling block to the Jews and folly to the Gentiles, the message of the cross is our salvation. Of course it is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it was not a mere man who died for us, but the Son of God, God made man.

In the Mosaic law a sacrificial lamb banished the destroyer. But now it is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Will he not free us from our sins even more? The blood of an animal, a sheep, brought salvation. Will not the blood of the only-begotten Son bring us greater salvation?

He was not killed by violence, he was not forced to give up his life. His was a willing sacrifice. Listen to his own words: I have the power to lay down my life and take it up again. Yes, he willingly submitted to his own passion. He took joy in his achievement; in his crown of victory he was glad and in the salvation of man he rejoiced. He did not blush at the cross for by it he was to save the world. No, it was not a lowly man who suffered but God incarnate. He entered the contest for the reward he would win by his patient endurance.

Certainly in times of tranquility the cross should give you joy. But maintain the same faith in times of persecution. Otherwise you will be a friend of Jesus in times of peace and his enemy during war. Now you receive the forgiveness of your sins and the generous gift of grace from your king. When war comes, fight courageously for him.

Jesus never sinned; yet he was crucified for you. Will you refuse to be crucified for him, who for your sake was nailed to the cross? You are not the one who gives the favor; you have received one first. For your sake he was crucified on Golgotha.

Now you are returning his favor; you are fulfilling your debt to him.

A Message from the Columbiette President

Sister Columbiettes and Brother Knights, I hope this finds you and your families doing well. It's hard to believe that we are now in the season of Lent, 40 days of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Lent is a period of preparation to celebrate our Lord's Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Christmas seems like yesterday, but Easter is around the corner! Hopefully we will not have any more snow and the flowers will start to appear soon!

We held a very successful SUPERBOWL Raffle this year! Congratulations to our winners: Chick Angioli, Neil Savino and MaryAnn Cabri. A great big "Thank You" to all who participated. The proceeds from all of our fundraisers are used to make our donations to various charities, including St. James Parish Outreach.

The Columbiettes have been busy planning some exciting events and I hope you will be able to join us! Our Spring Fundraiser will be a "Ladies High Tea".... You won't want to miss this lovely afternoon event which will take place on Sunday, April 28th This is going to be a wonderful afternoon filled with delicious teas, finger sandwiches and desserts. YOU MUST WEAR A HAT!

Believe me, you will NOT want to miss this event! The cost is $30 per person and reservations can be made by contacting Past President, MaryAnn Cabri at 516-366-9133. The deadline for reservations is April 21 (or prior to that if we sell out).

Please continue to pray for our sick and deceased Columbiettes.

Blessings,

Linda Ruggiero President
