T-Shirts

Fam, I'm doing the family shirts I designed as a group order, so when you order, it will ship to you at your house or apartment you don't have to wait or try to find me, lol. Also, every reunion there usually is someone that didn't make it or can't make it but wanted a shirt so bam no problem now you welcome to get as many as you want. The way it works is simple, you open this link below.... select your size, pay for it and once the order deadline date ends (June 15), they ship out all at one time directly to you. (Custom Ink normally ships fast even though they say 10 days usually much sooner)
