

OCTOBER 17, 2021
TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection from Fr. Bernard Doré

The teaching and example of Jesus call us to lay down our lives in humble service to God and others.

The First Reading tells of how the Lord's chosen and faithful servant would bring salvation to the world through his suffering and death.

The Second Reading Hebrews reminds us that the prayers we offer to the Father through Jesus will be heard and answered.

In The Gospel, Jesus had just given His Apostles the third prediction of the sufferings and death that awaited him in Jerusalem. These predictions fell on deaf ears as far as his Apostles were concerned. Two of their leaders, James and John, came forward to ask him for the principal places in the glorious kingdom they were sure he was going to set up when they reached Jerusalem. Jesus was gentle with them for he knew that they had not yet grasped that his kingdom was not of this world. He told them that if they would have a place in his kingdom, they must imitate the sacrifice he was about to make, to establish that Kingdom-the path to glory is only through suffering. Jesus teaches that true greatness in God's Kingdom is found by humbly serving others. Jesus demonstrated this clearly and definitely by freely offering his life for the sake of our salvation. As in all things, Christ lived what he preached. He did not seek his own glory. He did not lord it over others. He served others and gave his life to save them. Faithfulness to God is not easy, and suffering in some form is going to be a consequence of faithfulness. But we are not alone. Christ is always our model. He has gone before us, carrying the cross. He will definitely help us carry our own crosses.

Let us sincerely pray for the grace and follow Our Lord's example so that we might be found worthy of the kingdom of God.

What to watch?

Watch The Search, a 7-part video series that asks some of the important questions in life.

Episode 7 // Why a Church?

How do I access this man who lived 2000 years ago? How do I live this call of love? We uniquely encounter the love of God in His Church. But really? The Church? There are so many negative views of the Church. It's out of touch. It's full of bad people. It's just too boring.

Maybe when we say "The Church" we mean a little more. The Church is the family of God that's been lovingly gathered through our entire story. It's the place we were meant to encounter His grace that prepares us for every step of life.

The God that is love knows how we're made – material and spiritual – we need tangible ways to live our faith. We can't be spiritual but not religious. This is where we'll find ultimate happiness in life. This is where the God that has been seeking humanity, who wrote the deepest desires onto our human hearts, encounters us.

Jesus' first words to humanity in the Gospel of John are "what do you seek?" The one that asked the question not only knows the answer, He is the answer. The answer to everything. And you find him most profoundly here in His Church.

The Bishop's World Mission Sunday Message

My dear Brothers and Sisters,

World Mission Sunday — the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church — will be on October 24 this year. This important day in the life of the Church universal fortifies our understanding of our shared call to mission, bestowed upon us at Baptism.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). The Holy Father shares his zeal, reminding us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel." He invites us to speak of our faith!

World Mission Sunday provides us with that very opportunity. We can speak about our faith and respond to our missionary call — through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on that special day. Your gifts support and sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, serve the poor — and speak of our shared faith in all corners of the world.

"The global pandemic has brought to the fore and amplified the pain, the solitude, the poverty, and the injustices experienced by so many people," reminds Pope Francis. This year, as the world recovers from the loss and the challenges that resulted, let us respond with reciprocal generosity to the fullest extent that we are able.

In this spirit, I offer my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart, reaching out in love throughout Mission Month.

Sincerely,
Thomas J. Tobin
Bishop of Providence
