

JANUARY 24, 2021
THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection from Fr. Bernard Doré

We continue our reflection on Christian Discipleship. All our saints are great examples of Christian Discipleship.

In The First Reading, The story of The Prophet Jonah has two important points: It reveals the universal nature of God's mercy and forgiveness and it shows the effects of true repentance. If we answer God's call to renounce evil, his mercy will overshadow our lives, bringing them true peace and joy.

In The Second Reading, St. Paul tells us that we Christians should live totally for God.

In The Gospel, Peter, Andrew, James and John are called by Christ to leave all and follow him. Their response was immediate. They were unlikely people- simple, humble and uneducated fishermen-to tell the Good News to a sophisticated world empire. Yet because they responded, by the strength of The Holy Spirit, they were responsible for preaching Christ and His Gospel and finally giving their lives as martyrs for Christ.

Today we too are called to follow Christ through our Baptism. We too are called to share Christ and His Gospel, to love and care for others and forgive others and if needed, to die as martyrs for Christ. But many times we all fail in our call to be faithful followers of Christ. Let us sincerely beg the Lord for his forgiveness for all our failures and pray for the grace to live our Christian Discipleship faithfully and sincerely.

I Heard God Laugh

The Promise of This Book

This book is about that habit of prayer. Every book makes a promise... The promise of this book is that it will teach you how to pray and introduce you to a world of spirituality that most people have never experienced. I specifically want to teach you a form of prayer that will help you develop a vibrant habit of daily prayer.

Finding Your Reason

You may be asking: Why should I pray? It's a great question. It is also the answer. We have so many questions, and all too often we turn to the people around us as we look for answers, instead of turning to the one who has all the answers to all the questions. Your questions are the gateway to the answers you seek.

Habit and Potential

Our lives change when our habits change. For better or for worse, habits are one of the most powerful influences in our lives. Here is something worth pondering: The being of something changeable-you is not only what it is, but what it still can be. You are not only who and what you are today; your essence or being also includes who you are capable of becoming-who you still can be. It expresses the basis for hope in our potential, and potential is a beautiful thing.

Living the Liturgy

Inspiration for the week

"Repent, and believe in the Gospel." Some type of honest and sincere repentance is necessary for any type of authentic growth and maturity. We have to come to the realization, unless we are happy wallowing in immaturity and superficiality, that the way we have been doing things is not the best or the healthiest. There isn't a human being alive who hasn't acted foolishly or erratically at the cost of almost losing a treasured relationship. "Why did I act that way?" is a question we often ponder after some reflection and enlightenment. Faith works the same way. Stumbling through life and bumping up against meaninglessness, a person can begin to see that something significant is missing. They see that there is merit to a relationship with God and an embrace of faith. Before these can take root, sincere sorrow for past wrong doing, missed opportunities, errors in judgment, and short sightedness is necessary. Repentance is necessary. Then having realized that we were walking in darkness, we can rejoice that by God's grace we now see the light.

KIDS CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

There's a colorful envelope addressed to you on the kitchen table. You see it's from your friend. You open it and find a party invitation inside. Your parents say you can go! When Jesus invited Peter, Andrew, James and John to come along with him, they were just as excited to go. Jesus was the Savior and a good friend. They couldn't wait!

Prayer

Jesus, I thank you for inviting me to spend time with you.

Mission for the Week

Jesus wants you to come to his home in Heaven. Make a party invitation from Jesus to you. Use this invitation as a bookmark in your Bible.
