KELDA FOODS

India is the largest producer, consumer and exporter of spices in the world.

Apart from its aroma and taste, spices have medicinal values as well. They improve digestion and increase the immunity power. Being natural, they have no side effects and hence are preferred to artificial flavors. KELDA FOODS Pvt. Ltd is a Food manufacturing and exporting company located at Thodupuzha, Kerala, India. We provide you a wide range of food products for all your culinary needs.
