

Next Meeting:

1 to 5 p.m. Sunday February 25, 2018 at Riverview Community Centre,
90 Ashland Ave.

WMQG member Susan Earl will be demonstrating specialty rulers. Check out our website here for a complete list of 2018 meetings!

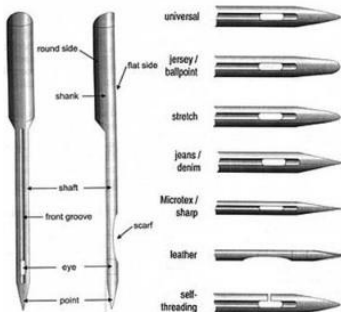

Thank you for all of those who have joined the guild. We are excited to announce that we are at 70 paid members going into our first full year as a guild!

Upcoming skill builders:

We are pleased to host Winnipeg quilter Marilyn Stewart Stothers for a trunk show and talk about modern quilting at our March 18th meeting.

Marilyn wrote the definition of the word "quilt" for the Canadian Encyclopedia and is a long time presence in the Canadian and international quilting communities. Read more about Marilyn at her website here.

In April, WMQC member Bonnie Olfert sharpens our knowledge about sewing machine needles.

Door prize fairy:

We're looking for volunteers to put together door prizes for our upcoming meetings. Please e-mail us at winnipeg.mqg@gmail.com if you can put together some goodies for February or other upcoming meetings.

QUILTCON
presented by THE MODERN QUILT GUILD

Going to QuiltCon?

The convention of the Modern Quilt Guild takes place in Pasadena, CA from Feb. 22-25. If you're going, consider reporting back to the rest of us at our March meeting. Contact Brenda Suderman (brenda@suderman.com)

It's not too early to think about next year. QuiltCon 2019 takes place in Nashville, TN February 21-24 2019, at the Music City Center. Watch the website for details.

Please ensure you join the Facebook Groups that look like these!

Destash and sell:

Post your items for sale or swap at our Facebook Page. You need to be a member to post and buy!

Pincushion swap:

Thanks to everyone who participated in our first swap at the Winnipeg Modern Quilt Guild. We saw an amazing variety of creative pincushions. Feel free to post a picture of the one you received on our Facebook page or on Instagram #winnipegmqg

Charity quilt opportunity:

Share a block or more with the Ventura MQG as they make quilts for victims of the recent fires in California. Check out their website for more information.
