Chamber Committee Reports:

Stampede/Ranch Rodeo Committee: Ted Rensvold was nominated and accepted the honor of Grand Marshal. They are steadily working on sponsorships.

Grandstand Committee: Nothing to Report

Stadium Committee: Drew Reum has offered to help be a point of contact on Saturday of Stampede. Stuart is going to do Friday like usual. Rodney is going to help us finish putting new locks in the bathrooms and concessions buildings so everything will be keyed the same so we don't need to have so many keys.

Tournament Committee: Nothing to Report

Beautification Committee: Not Present

Community Committee Reports:

Optimist Club: The Valentines Day dinner was a success. They cooked for about 200 people. The Easter egg hunt will be March 28th. The Wolf Point Stampede Talent Show is set to happen Tuesday, July 7th at the Legion Ball Field. They will have concessions.

Unresolved & Old Business:

- Ranch Rodeo Budget: Need Budget to Approve.
- Dues: Dues are steadily coming in, we are currently sitting at: 55 Memberships and $17,675 (as of Monday 3/2/2026)
- ATMs for Stampede Grounds: Traci called Independence Bank and they were going to make sure they could get us a second ATM.

New Business:

- Stampede Entertainment: The Band for Saturday Night has been secured, as well as the Stage. We are still working on Wednesday night entertainment.

Executive Director/President Report:

- We are still actively looking for an Executive Director. If we don't have one by Stampede Traci will need help with Art in the Park. Kelli stated she will be there that morning because of the Human Stampede so she can stay and help if no one else is available.

Next Meeting will be: March 3rd, 2026

Adjournment: A motion was made by Keith Higgins to adjourn the meeting. Kelli Hackley seconded the motion. Meeting Adjourned.
