SOMERS EDUCATION FOUNDATION
"Supporting Education for the Future"

The Somers Education Foundation, after review and recommendation by the grant review committee, awarded 40 creative and innovative grants totaling $27,499 during the 2012-2013 school year.

Award Summary

Tech Robotics MBA*

Lego Mindstorm NXT 2.0 robotics program at MBA teaches students about robotic concepts, how to design and build a robot, and how to program it using the ROBOTC 3.0 programming language. Aligns with the VEX Robotics program at SHS and exposes students to the fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

Luna Interactive Cameras MBA*

Portable document cameras, webcams and video cameras allowing Math teachers to display student work, teach new concepts, and create video clips which can be linked to their web pages.

The Spartan School Store SHS*

A school store run by SHS Business and Special Education students providing students the opportunity to learn marketing, finance, business management, and customer relations. It also allows students to use their math and leadership skills, develop self-confidence and learn peer modeling.

Mimio Teach Technology SES*

State of the art technology magnetically attaches to a white board turning it into an interactive learning device. Used in conjunction with ceiling mounted projectors, these devices create an engaging environment that motivates our youngest learners.

NCTM Conference MBA*

The National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM) provided workshops and seminars focusing on current issues in mathematics such as the new Common Core Curriculum, use of iPads in the math classroom, the best iPad apps for math students, algebraic thinking and mathematical reasoning.

Read Strong MBA*

The pilot reading program through the SEA Reading Laboratory provides individualized reading instruction to readers of various levels, in addition to offering lessons in areas such as fluency, phonics, comprehension and literature.

2012 Activities

One of the major highlights of 2012 was the awarding of a record-breaking $31,277.00 in grants to support the Somers Public Schools. Another highlight was the SEF "Taste of Excellence." This wine, beer and food tasting was a sell-out for the third consecutive year. The 3rd annual Day Lily sale, sponsored by Dan Roulier, was very successful accompanied by its delicious pancake breakfast. The newest fundraiser was a partnership with the Village Players. "Foundation Night" treated guests to the performance of "Moon Over Buffalo." The “Save Your Receipt” fundraiser program sponsored by Geissler’s Supermarkets produced record results. SEF is grateful to Geissler’s and the community for their support of this program. The revised SEF website sefonline.org provides the public with an updated view of the Foundation and its activities.
