

Boyd H. Anderson High School Entrepreneur and Leadership Military Academy Cadet Contract

As a Cadet of the Entrepreneur and Leadership Military Academy (ELMA), I, _____ agree to:

- Strictly adhere to the ELMA Academic and Moral Standards: cheating, stealing, destroying property, bullying and fighting are cause for dismissal
- Learn Academy Standards and abide by them
- Avoid tobacco, alcohol, and drugs. I understand non-avoidance is grounds for immediate dismissal. This is a one strike and you are out contract rule.
- Demonstrate respect and courtesy to all staff, faculty, Cadet leadership and fellow Cadets at all times
- Refrain from intimidating, harassing, or threatening others
- Exhibit good leadership, citizenship, sportsmanship and scholarship
- Wear ELMA uniforms with pride and according to standards
- Replace ELMA uniform(s) and/or associated items due to wear, loss or negligence
- Remain orderly and focused on task in the classroom
- Be responsible for completing and turning-in class work and homework
- Move from one area of the school to another in an orderly manner. Arrive on time to all classes prepared to lead / participate in classroom procedures
- Care for textbooks, furniture, equipment and rooms, leaving them unmarked and in as good a condition as they were found
- Understand my behavior at all other locations off school property reflects on the Academy (bus stop, bus, field trips, after-school activities, etc.). Accordingly, I will maintain the same standards of behavior expected while at school.

I understand that my duty at ELMA is to learn. The implied task of the latter statement is that I am required to commit to completing at least two to three hours of homework per night. I understand that I must maintain a minimum of a 2.5 unweighted core GPA to remain in the Boyd H. Anderson High School Entrepreneur and Leadership Military Academy. Most importantly, is that I understand I will be expected to demonstrate self-discipline, integrity, endurance, determination and strength of character. I am entering ELMA because I want to and not due to pressure from any other person or group of persons. I understand that my personal commitment is essential to my success.
