

Jacey Skinner

Jacey Skinner is the former General Counsel for Governor Gary Herbert of the State of Utah. As General Counsel, she advised the Governor, his staff and his Cabinet on legal and ethical issues. She also acted as the Governor's legislative director during four legislative sessions. Most recently she served as the Deputy State Court Administrator for the Judiciary of the State of Utah.

Prior to her appointment as General Counsel, Ms. Skinner served as the Director of the Utah Sentencing Commission and as the President of the National Association Sentencing Commissions, and an Assistant District Attorney with the Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office. Ms. Skinner is a Center for State Government Toll Fellow. She received her Bachelor's degree from Utah State University and her Juris Doctor degree from the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University.

In her spare time she enjoys photography and building things.
