

Christopher M. Conabee

Mr. Conabee has extensive public service experience and currently serves as the Interim Executive Director of the Utah Inland Port Authority, a member of the Governor's Office of Economic Development Board, the Salt Lake Hotel/Convention Center Selection Committee and was appointed as the Co-Chair of the Point of the Mountain Development Commission. He graduated with a BS in International Economics from the University of Utah and a Masters in Business Administration from Columbia University. He currently serves as a Founding Partner in Utah Development and Construction. With over 20 years of alpine resort development experience, Mr. Conabee has experience in the development of resort commercial, non-profit commercial, restaurant, retail, condominium, high-end housing and affordable housing across projects like Maple Ridge Ranches, Silver Star at Park City, Red Ledges, The Utah Olympic Park and currently the expansion to the Goldener Hirsch in Silver Lake, Deer Valley.

Christopher, Vanessa and their three children enjoy skiing, golfing, and fishing.