

Greg Summerhays is President & CEO of the Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce. Under his leadership, the chamber has shifted its focus to education and training programs that build the capacity of small businesses and help them to grow. Their signature program the KeyBank Business Accelerator Academy is helping companies across the Wasatch Front substantially increase their annual revenues and create jobs.

Greg is a skilled relationship manager with a strong background in public relations, marketing, communication, and resource development. Greg has spent his career working with diverse groups of individuals and across multiple sectors. He is a forward-thinking individual who loves to bring people together to solve complex problems.

Greg lives in Draper with his wife and four children. He loves the outdoors and enjoys trail running, hiking, water skiing, and photography.