

LaDawn Stoddard, Division Director of UServeUtah

LaDawn Stoddard serves as the Division Director of UServeUtah, the Utah Commission on Service & Volunteerism. In this role she provides leadership and strategic direction for the UServeUtah mission of developing, implementing, and sustaining a vision and culture of civic engagement and national and community service within the state. Since its inception in 1994, UServeUtah has focused on increasing the capacity of organizations and individuals to serve, strengthen and transform communities through service and volunteerism. LaDawn is an accomplished trainer with 20+ years at the local, statewide and national level. She began her career working in the private sector where she owned and managed a small business and has served on numerous local and national boards and volunteer committees. She has also been personally engaged in volunteering from a very young age and this combination of experiences has allowed for development of a unique perspective into both the public, private and nonprofit sectors that has served her well in her current position. LaDawn currently lives in Midway, Utah and loves sports, traveling and spending time with her grandkids!
