Mark Evans, Information Security Officer at Salt Lake County

Mark Evans Mark Evans is currently working as the Information Security Officer at Salt Lake County. The County is a $1.5B local government organization with 7500 employees. Mark has been in the IT field for 40 years. His focus for the past 20 years has been in InfoSec. Mark manages a team of seven very talented InfoSec analysts who make the magic happen. Mark has a BS degree in Information Technology. Mark has also completed the requirements for the CISSP, CISM, and CCISO certifications. Mark enjoys talking InfoSec to anyone who will listen.