

Nate Talley

Nate Talley is the budget and policy manager for the Governor's Office of Management and Budget. He also serves as a staff economist. Nate's professional responsibilities include analyzing and advising on social service program interventions, healthcare reform, economic development policies and state human resource concerns. Prior to his tenure in the Governor's Office, Nate worked as a labor economist and Bureau of Labor Statistics program manager with the Department of Workforce Services. Nate has a strong interest in the local economic and academic community. Nate holds a bachelor's degree in economics, a graduate certificate in business analytics and a master's degree in public policy from the University of Utah.