

Keith Heaton graduated in economics from the University of Utah in 1989. For the past 24 years he has worked in Community Development for the State of Utah. Keith currently directs the community development and planning programs for the State. Keith served as President of both the state and national Certified Public Managers Associations. Currently Keith serves as the President of the Washington DC based Council of State Community Development Agencies. He and his wife Debbie have been married for 31 years, have 4 children, 2 grandchildren and live in Bountiful. When not running off to meetings he can be found on his bicycle.