DIRECTOR'S NOTES

First of all, I would like to thank everyone who came out today, to support these amazing performers, especially during these hard times of this Covid-19 pandemic. Just about 2 months ago, David Holmes and I met to see what we could do to provide some theatre for the Teen Broadway Workshops, since everything else was shut down. We set out looking at putting on a small cabaret show, and during that conversation it turned into putting on a full show, Godspell. We knew we were only able to have a certain number of cast members per show, and this show just happened to work out.

2 weeks after meeting to decide on the show, we started auditions, so this was a quick turnaround. That meant I had to work fast to find a production team. I am so thankful for Breanna, Shealyn and Kirsten for joining so last minute to help get this show started. I couldn't have put this production together without them.

To the cast, you all have been so great to work with, and I am blown away by the talent that is in Mankato and the surrounding areas. Take in this moment, and perform your hearts out, because you deserve all the praise and more.

I am so glad I was given this role to make my Directing Debut with the Mankato Playhouse, and cannot wait to move forward with this amazing Theatre. To David and Lori, thank you for providing such an amazing opportunity to this community, and giving me the chance to join the Mankato Playhouse family.

Thank you all for coming to see Godspell and continuing to support the theatre.
