AUTHOR/DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Thank you all for attending "Who Murdered My Sweetheart?" Today you really are seeing a world premiere of my work as I change the murderer and victim for every show. Sometimes I don't tell the cast until right before the curtain goes up. Why? I don't trust them!

I quip that I am in my 30th year of "killing audiences," because I began my career in 1991 at a small Italian restaurant in Klamath Falls, Oregon. Since then I have worked with some amazing performers in all 50 states, in London, Paris, and at sea. What a talented group David Holmes and his theatre company have assembled over the years. You will see some of them in this performance. I wish them great success in the coming years.

Your job as audience member is to act as detective and see if you can solve:

The WhoDunIt: The Murderer

The WhoGetsIt: The Victim

The WhyDunIt: The Motive

The WhatDunIt: The Weapon

The HowDunIt: The Opportunity

At the end of the proceedings you will get to vote, as a group (table) on the murderer and motive!
