

Christmas is a holiday celebrated across the world, rich with history and shaped by centuries of evolving traditions. What we know today as “Christmas” is the result of cultural blending — a merging of ancient customs, religious observances, and community practices passed down through generations.

The earliest roots of the holiday trace back to pagan winter festivals, including Saturnalia in Rome and Yule among Germanic peoples. These celebrations centered around the winter solstice, a time to honor the return of longer days and the hope of spring after the darkest stretch of the year.

Later, as Christianity spread, December 25th was chosen to commemorate the birth of Jesus Christ. Although the precise date is unknown, aligning the celebration with existing solstice festivals allowed communities to embrace both their longstanding customs and their emerging Christian traditions.

During the Middle Ages, Christmas grew into a season of feasting, music, and lively gatherings that could stretch on for days or even weeks. Caroling, nativity plays, and the giving of gifts became beloved parts of the celebration.

By the Victorian era, many of the traditions we now consider essential were firmly established. Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol helped define the holiday as a time of generosity and goodwill. Christmas trees, greeting cards, and the recognizable image of Santa Claus also became widespread during this period.

Christmas in Our Small Country Towns

In our small country towns, Christmas still carries that timeless charm — where traditions feel personal, homemade, and deeply rooted in community.

We celebrate with beloved events such as our festive Holiday Bingos, Santa’s visit to our communities, and of course, our Giving Tree which brings joy and support to local families each year. Main Street glows with lights and decorations, creating a warm and welcoming scene that feels like it came straight from a holiday storybook.

Families gather around tables filled with homemade dishes, exchanging gifts, sharing memories, and attending church services together. Neighbors swap cookies, pies, and holiday treats, continuing the tradition of generosity and fellowship that has always defined rural Christmastime.

More than anything, Christmas in a small town is about togetherness. It’s about neighbors helping neighbors, friends reconnecting, and a community pausing to celebrate goodwill, kindness, and the simple joys of the season.

COMMUNITYchatter

by Kristi Keller Milanowski

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, everywhere you go." If you're on Santa's naughty list, it's probably too late to make amends, but you have an entire year ahead to work on it!

I hope everyone escaped our recent flood event safely. We may not be out of the wintry weather woods just yet, so stay safe and cautious. Many thanks to all the road warriors who kept the public informed on social media on Hwy 6 road conditions.

Continued thanks to Mike Jensen for his daily Hwy 6 road reports and all the commuters for keeping everyone up to speed on road conditions.

Until the next Pe Ell Sun rises, here are a few words to ponder. "May this Christmas season fill our homes with peace, our hearts with gratitude and our days with the people who matter most."

I wish each and everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year 2026!! Remember the reason for the season.
