

Valentine's Day has origins dating back to ancient Rome. The holiday is thought to have evolved from Lupercalia, a fertility festival held in mid-February. However, it became associated with romance in the 14th and 15th centuries, thanks to poets like Geoffrey Chaucer, who linked it to courtly love. By the 18th century, exchanging handwritten love notes became common, and by the 19th century, mass-produced Valentine's cards became popular.

Modern Celebrations of Valentine's Day

Today, Valentine's Day is widely celebrated in many ways, including:

Gift Giving – People exchange flowers (especially roses), chocolates, stuffed animals, and jewelry.

Cards & Love Notes – Many give handwritten or store-bought Valentine's cards.

Romantic Dinners – Couples often go out for a special meal or cook at home.

Proposals & Weddings – It's a popular day for engagements and even weddings.

Galentine's Day – Celebrated on February 13th, it's a day for women to celebrate friendship.

Acts of Kindness – Some use the day to spread love beyond romance, including giving small gifts to friends, coworkers, or even strangers.

School Celebrations – Children often exchange Valentine's cards and candy at school.

Charitable Giving – Some participate in events that focus on kindness and helping others.

It's a day that has expanded beyond just romantic love, emphasizing appreciation for loved ones in general. Do you have any Valentine's events planned for your town?

PRESIDENTS DAY

Presidents Day, officially known as Washington's Birthday, was established in 1879 as a federal holiday to honor George Washington's birthday (February 22). It was originally celebrated only in the District of Columbia but expanded nationwide in 1885.

How It Became Presidents Day

In 1971, the Uniform Monday Holiday Act moved the celebration to the third Monday in February to create more three-day weekends.

The holiday was never officially changed to "Presidents Day" at the federal level, but many states and the public began recognizing it as a day to honor both George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday is February 12. Over time, it became a general celebration of all U.S. presidents, though the focus still leans toward Washington and Lincoln.

How It's Remembered Today

Government Closures: Federal offices, banks, and many schools close for the holiday.

Sales & Promotions: Retailers take advantage of the long weekend with major sales events.

Educational Programs: Schools may have lessons on U.S. presidents, especially Washington and Lincoln.

Community Events: Some places hold reenactments, parades, or historical presentations.

Federal Observance: It remains officially "Washington's Birthday," though many Americans informally call it "Presidents Day."

Shellfish managers with the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW) announced tentative days of razor clam digs at four coastal beaches from Oct. 15 through Feb. 1. All beach openings are dependent on final approval of marine toxin testing, which usually occurs about a week or less prior to the start of each digging series. Below are the tentative dates, along with low tides and beaches.

Feb. 14, Friday, 7:32 p.m.; 0.4 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Copalis

Tentative dates during evening (noon to midnight only) low tides:

Feb. 24, Monday, 4:04 p.m.; 0.2 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Mocrocks

Feb. 25, Tuesday, 4:46 p.m.; -0.3 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Copalis

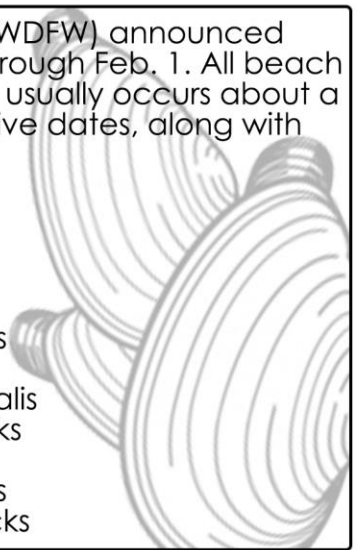

Feb. 26, Wednesday, 5:25 p.m.; -0.6 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Copalis

Feb. 27, Thursday, 6:03 p.m.; -0.7 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Mocrocks

Feb. 28, Friday, 6:39 p.m.; -0.6 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Mocrocks

March 1, Saturday, 7:15 p.m.; -0.1 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Copalis

March 8, Saturday, 2:13 p.m.; 0.6 feet; Long Beach, Twin Harbors, Mocrocks

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Live

Sunday Afternoon Live has really taken audiences all over the musical map during Season 21! We've been treated to choral renditions of show tunes and the American songbook; we've been thrilled by the classic stylings of an internationally recognized piano virtuoso. We've been transported to the windswept plains of the "spaghetti westerns"; we've been wowed by the genius of a guitar master and inventor. We've enjoyed some pretty wonderful Northwest artists performing originals we instantly connected with.

And now for something completely different...

Sunday Afternoon Live is delighted to welcome The Wardens for a return engagement at the historic Raymond Theatre on Sunday, February 23 at 2 PM. The Wardens are far more than a musical experience. For this band, the music is a vehicle, a way to take us to The Wild. The Wardens are a trio of Canadian National Park wardens—the real McCoy—park rangers, protectors, "government cowboys" whose real-life wilderness experiences produce the songs they bring to the stage. The Wardens' mission is to make those experiences come alive for us.

Band members are current or retired wardens posted in Canadian national parks in Alberta; the grizzlies, elk, runaway pack horses, and harrowing mountain rescues they sing about are the real thing. Their musical mastery of guitar, mandolin, fiddle, and beautiful harmonies will bring these scenes straight into the listener's heart. We may not be able to visit a warden's snowy Rocky Mountain cabin in person, but The Wardens will get us there just the same.

The Wardens will perform at the historic Raymond Theatre, 323 3rd St, Raymond, WA on Sunday, February 23 at 2 PM. Tickets for The Wardens will be $25 ($5 for students) at the door (credit card, cash, or check). Advance purchase is $20 ($5 for students) online at sundayafternoonlive.org or by mail. Send a SASE and a check payable to Sunday Afternoon Live to: SAL, PO Box 964, South Bend, WA 98586; or you may email sal@reachone.com, or call 360-836-4419. Tickets may also be purchased at South Bend Pharmacy and at Raymond Pharmacy, or at Alder + Co. in Raymond.

The Pe Ell Food Bank is OPEN on Wednesday, February 26th between 11:00 AM and Noon. Our new location is at New Harvest Church - 134 Mauerman RD. Please stop by if you are in need of a little extra assistance. The process is simple, we just need your name, number of people in your home and their ages, and the City in which you reside. That's it! We offer assistance the last Wednesday of the month between 11:00 am and Noon. We welcome your participation! Any questions, please feel free to contact: Brad Rhodes at 3608808067.
