

Team Storytelling Workshop Experience

Overview

The Team Storytelling Workshop is a 3-hour experience that enhances speed-to-connection between colleagues and creates team cohesion.

Participants uncover and share their personal storylines through the framework of Archetypes. Sharing individual stories fosters a deeper, more authentic dialog.

This signature experience is a prerequisite to other CultureTalk workshops.

Key Outcomes

- Build self-awareness.
- Enhance vulnerability and trust between team members.
- Improve team communication and collaboration.
- Understand unconscious motivations and beliefs.
- Begin learning a common culture language.

Agenda

Prework	CultureTalk for Individuals Each participant will: • Take the assessment. • Read their full report. • Read the reports for 'Supporting Archetypes'. • Review reports and highlight what resonates.
Part 1 1-hour	Meet the 12 Archetypes Presentation • What are Archetypes? • Strengths/shadows of each • Levels of development Each participant validates a profile • Select Archetypes to represent Story Profile. • Identify strengths/shadows of each. • Recall stories that illustrate the patterns.
Self-Reflection 1/2-hour	Participants prepare their stories for Part 2.
Part 2 1.5-hours	Exchanging Stories Teams may break into small groups for storytelling. Each participant will have 5+ minutes to share their Story Profiles, including strengths, shadows, and example stories.

I learned more about the people on my team in the last 3 hours than I have over the past 3 years.
