

22nd Annual
Cadiz Community

Yard Sale

Friday June 5th & Saturday June 6th

Sponsored by the Cadiz Business Association

The perfect opportunity to “recycle” those unwanted items that may be clutter to you, but useful to someone else.

The Cadiz Business Association encourages all families and organizations of the community to join in this giant community wide event. Yard, porch and garage sales will be coordinated on the same weekend, and organizations may join in with fund-raisers, such as car washes, bake sales ect. but please do so in accordance with the governor and health department guidelines on the date of the event. Businesses are encouraged to have side walk sales. Past community yard sales have attracted scores of bargain hunters from all over the surrounding area.

Yard Sale maps are available the morning of the yard sales. If you would like information included please fill out this registration form and return. We ask that all information be returned by the deadline to ensure sufficient time for our map creators.
