This Deed of Trust (the "Trust Deed") sets out the terms and conditions upon which settlor name (the "Settlor"), of settlor address, settles that property set out in Schedule A (the "Property") upon trustee name (the "Trustee"), being a company duly registered under the laws of [State] with the registration number and having its registered address at registered address (together, the "Parties") establishing a trust. A trust is a formal arrangement where property is transferred from a settlor to a trustee who has full control over that property but must hold it for the benefit of beneficiaries. This trust deed template is suitable for a discretionary trust, where the trustee has full control over the assets of the trust and has no obligation to return the funds to the settlor and the settlor cannot influence the trustee in any way. The trustee's obligations under discretionary trusts are likely to be enforceable in courts (at least in common law countries like the US and UK) but this is a complicated and sophisticated legal arrangement which cannot easily be undone. If you want to transfer property to someone else's name but still keep control of the property you should use a declaration of trust instead (also known as a nominee declaration or mandatory declaration). Unlike companies, trusts generally do not need to be registered.
