

PARISH NEWS

I spend more time than I should arguing with strangers on the internet. I know it's not good for my mental health, and I sincerely doubt I've ever changed someone's mind as a result of a clever tweet or rambling Facebook comment, but sometimes I just can't help myself. Most of the time, it's about stuff that is absolutely unimportant, in the grand scheme of things; things like trying to convince strangers that Houston Astros should be stripped of their 2017 World Series title because they cheated, or why a certain fantasy author is grossly overrated.

But sometimes, those arguments aren't so meaningless. Sometimes they're debates about who should get basic human rights, or whether vaccines save countless lives, or whether we should care that we're killing the planet we call home. Sometimes, these conversations deal with matters of life and death—things that really shouldn't be up for debate. We live in a fractious, divided world. There should be a lively, robust debate among people who disagree. We should listen with open ears to ideas that challenge and convict, and be willing to learn and grow. But sometimes we need to take a stand for what we believe.

PASTOR'S BOOKSHELF:
THE DEEP
RIVERS SOLOMON

We are the church, united in the body of Christ in this world. There is a lot that we disagree on, from theology and doctrine, to more human concerns, like civic engagement, or whether the Astros should be stripped of their 2017 World Series title (with apologies to any Astros fans out there, it seems to me like a no-brainer. But I digress). Our differences should be valued, our diversity of wisdom and opinion cherished for the gift it is, but there are some convictions that we share: that the grace of God is revealed to us in Jesus Christ. That all people are made in God's image, and are welcome in God's presence. Now, how we understand these truths varies, much as it has since the earliest days of church, but like the church in every age, we are called to live out these convictions together in the world.

I believe we are called to cry out in solidarity with the oppressed as Christ did, especially in a moment like ours where our fellow human beings are being denied their humanity. I believe we are called to protect those who are vulnerable as Christ did, especially in the midst of a global pandemic that our country has been loath to address. I believe the mission of the church is to be the body of Christ in the world, and while we will often disagree on some of the specifics, we are united in the waters of baptism and entrusted with this holy work of ministry. What we do can change the world—what we do can affect matters of life and death. Siblings in Christ, let us work with compassion and hope for all of God's creatures and creation.

In Peace,
Pastor Micah Sievenpiper

Our Chrysalis Moment

By Anodea Judith

This is our chrysalis moment
Where the transformation begins.
Every caterpillar must do it eventually;
Or die,
Never to sprout their colorful wings in the air
And fly.
So like the caterpillar,
We may as well surrender.
Cocooning in our homes
Our world turned upside down.
Inside, we can no longer spread
our vicious disease of consumption
No longer run mindlessly toward our destruction.
Inside there is stillness
Inside, there is rest.

Outside, the air is clearing,
The rains are falling.
You can feel the peace,
Settling on the land at last.
And Yes, there is death.
For there's always a dissolution.
Old systems falling away,
That were already pretty slimy.
It may be frightening
All the uncertainty and loss.
But even in the darkness
Imaginal cells are awakening
Weaving a new web.
Recognizing that this is finally
Our time.
Our time to be heard
Our time to make new sense
Our time to do things differently
And when at last the dream awakens
To its nascent beginnings,
The chrysalis melts away.
A caterpillar no longer,
We spread our tender wings
And fly.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

Highlights of the August 18, 2020, Council Meeting

- Financial status was reviewed and while expenses and giving are both below budget, the net result is that finances are in order. The Stewardship Committee plays an important part in our financial health. The Chair seat is currently opened and will be addressed in the near future.
  - Pastor Micah Sievenpiper reported that the Advisory Committee on Re-Engagement and Re-Opening has sent a survey to the congregation seeking help to define ILC's future directions. So far 39 responses have been received. Those who have not responded are encouraged to do so, and will find a link to the survey in Friday's new weekly news email.
  - The ILC Christmas Store Task Force, sighting several pandemic related reasons, reluctantly made a recommendation not to host this year's Christmas Store. Among the reasons sighted are: the safety of volunteers, customers, the Purple Dragon, and ILC members; potential liability should we be found not to have provided adequate space meeting CDC guidelines; and MLM proposed format changes requiring use of our facilities for 6-8 weeks. The Council ratified the recommendation, and MLM will be notified of our decision. We will seek other ways to participate this year, and sincerely hope that ILC will again be able to host in 2021.
  - Following up on previously mentioned plans the Council has scheduled an August 29th Zoom Retreat to continue our discussion on what it means to be church leaders during the pandemic and beyond.

THEOLOGY ON TAP

The Heart of America (HOA) CROP Hunger Walk is going virtual this year, but that isn't stopping Karen Bame!

Karen has walked in every HOA CROP Hunger Walk since she moved to Kansas City in 1990, and COVID-19 is not going to stop her from participating in her 31st consecutive walk to raise money to feed hungry people!

So, on Saturday, October 10, 2020, at 10 AM, Karen will put on her sneakers and walk until she has gotten at least 10,000 steps on her Fitbit! Because this year will be Karen's 31st consecutive year of walking in the HOA CROP Hunger Walk, Immanuel's Social Ministry Committee has set a goal of raising $3100!

What is the HOA CROP Hunger Walk?

"CROP Hunger Walks are community-based walk events held in cities and towns across the United States raising funds to support the global mission of Church World Service, a faith-based organization transforming communities around the globe through just and sustainable responses to hunger, poverty, displacement and disaster. Twenty five percent of the funds raised are returned to the host community to support local hunger fighting efforts."

<https://www.crophungerwalk.org/kansascitymo/>

The monies raised by the HOA CROP Hunger Walk will be used to fund global projects that include 1) food security and nutrition, 2) water, sanitation and hygiene, 3) refugee protection and resettlement, and 4) disaster preparedness and response. The 25% of funds raised in Kansas City will support agencies like MLM, Shepherd's Center and a Raytown summer lunch program for kids.

FEEDING 800

Due to the Coronavirus, our sack lunch packing event has been postponed. The Social Ministry Committee will reschedule the event once we get a better sense of when we will be allowed to resume in-person church activities.

In the meantime, consider gathering non-perishable food items that will be included in the sack lunches. The single-serving, packaged items we need include:

- Tuna/chicken kits
- Beef jerky sticks
- Fruit snacks (cups, strips, or gummies)
- Granola bars
- Crackers or cookies

Our goal is to include two protein non-perishable food items (marked above) in each sack lunch, in addition to a fruit, granola bar, and cracker/cookie item! We need 800 of each item listed about to meet this goal.

As you venture out to run essential errands or place your online grocery order, please consider adding at least one of the items listed above to your cart. Thanks in advance for helping us get a jump start on this important ministry!
