Special event prospectus

Tell your story. Promote your brand.
Contribute to the empowerment of every woman you reach.

mission.

To empower women globally by creating safe, judgment-free spaces for storytelling, leadership, and transformation. Through summits, conferences, retreats, and community platforms, ShelsMe amplifies women's voices, dismantles limiting systems, and redefines leadership rooted in connection, courage, and authenticity.

vision.

A world where women are free to lead, heal, and rise without shame or fear — connected across 63+ countries through a global ecosystem of events, communities, and opportunities. ShelsMe envisions becoming the premier global platform for women's voices, where every woman feels powerful, supported, and never alone.

values.

- be in our power
- speak our truth
- live free
- take no shit
but do no harm

project.

At its heart, ShelsMe is about lifting each other up, building community, and sharing love in ways that only happen when women come together. It's an opportunity not only to share your story, but also your products and services with a wider audience.

This is a movement of empowerment, self-love, self-esteem, and self-worth — one that uplifts women from every angle. From speakers who finally have a safe, shame-free platform to tell their stories, to the women who realize for the first time that they are not alone, ShelsMe is where transformation begins.

Our goal is simple. It's freedom.

Freedom from self-loathing. Freedom from the rules and false beliefs thrust upon us from birth. It's freedom to show up and be who we really are and it's freedom to be who you are, in your truth, and shine as bright as you can.

why speak at sheisme.

- Be seen by a global audience spanning 63+ countries.
- Share the stage with thought leaders, healers, entrepreneurs, and creatives.
- Extend your reach with on-demand replay access for attendees worldwide.
- Build meaningful connections and collaborations that last long after the event.

When you speak at ShelsMe, you don't just share your story — you step into a global movement that transforms lives from the inside out.

Founded by Lisa Jimenez, who spent nearly 40 years in corporate leadership and a lifetime breaking cycles of silence, ShelsMe Global was created to give women what the world has too often denied them: a voice, a community, and a clear path to leadership.

As a ShelsMe speaker, you will:

- Amplify your voice — reaching women leaders, innovators, and changemakers across the globe.
- Expand your visibility — with exposure through ShelsMe's multi-channel platforms and community.
- Build authentic connection — with a sisterhood of women who lift each other up.
- Establish your authority — inspiring others with your story, expertise, and vision.
- Be part of something bigger — a global movement of women rising together.

SheisMe's mission is clear: to make the biggest impact possible in women's lives worldwide. By stepping onto the ShelsMe stage, you don't just speak — you lead, you inspire, and you change the world.

what we need.

if you have a story to tell, we want you to tell it in anyway it manifests! If you also have a product or service, fantastic.

become a ShelsMe speaks facilitator.

ShelsMe Speaks is more than an event — it's a movement that brings women together in local communities to share stories, learn, and lead.

These two-day gatherings feature a powerful mix of speakers, interactive workshops, and a marketplace of vendors showcasing women-owned products and services.

As a ShelsMe Speaks Facilitator, you get the opportunity to bring this experience to your city. You'll organize and host the event with full support from the ShelsMe Global team — including branding, resources, and guidance — while also shaping it with your own vision and local community needs.

What Makes ShelsMe Speaks Unique?

- Two Full Days of Impact: Engaging keynote speakers, hands-on workshops, and a vendor marketplace designed to inspire, teach, and connect.
- Local + Global Connection: A chance to highlight women leaders in your community while being part of ShelsMe's worldwide network.
- Profit-Sharing Model: Facilitators don't just host — they share in the financial success. You earn a percentage of ticket sales, vendor fees, and sponsorships, making this a meaningful business and leadership opportunity.
- Empowerment at Every Level: From the stage to the marketplace, ShelsMe Speaks uplifts women's voices, businesses, and leadership.

How to Get Started

1. Fill out the facilitator form with your details and the city where you'd like to host your event.
2. Our team will connect with you to review next steps, event support, and profit-sharing details.
3. Together, we'll create an unforgettable two-day event that transforms women's lives — and builds a sustainable opportunity for you as a facilitator.

ShelsMe Speaks is your chance to lead locally, earn income, and become part of a global movement of women rising together.

speaker commitment.

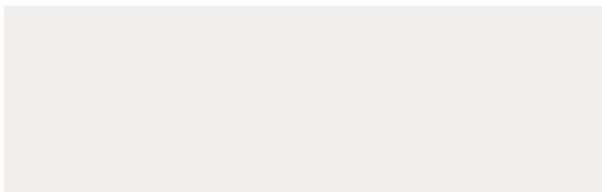

Speaking at a ShelsMe event is a non-paid opportunity. Like TEDx, we believe our platform exists to elevate ideas, stories, and voices that can empower and inspire women worldwide. This is not about self-promotion — it is about teaching, leading, and giving women everywhere the tools to rise.

By applying to speak, you agree to:

- Promote Collectively: Use the official ShelsMe materials to share the event with your network and participate in our joint marketing efforts. Together, we create the global impact that no one of us could achieve alone.
- Lift Each Other Up: Celebrate and support your fellow speakers, because ShelsMe is built on community, not competition.
- Align with Our Mission: Share your story and expertise in a way that empowers others, avoiding recruitment, political campaigning, or sales pitches.
- Collaborate in Visibility: Join our founder in a live or podcast feature, amplifying the reach of all speakers and ensuring that every woman's story is heard.

At ShelsMe, we rise by lifting others. When you take the stage, you are not only sharing your voice — you are carrying the voices of women across 63+ countries (and counting!) who are waiting to hear that they are not alone.

a special note from our founder.

We would personally like to thank you for joining our movement.

If you have found us, it must be because your work is in alignment with our goals and values.

We would like to mention a few things to be aware of before you apply to work with us.

This community was created as a safe space for women around the world.

We would like to bring to your attention something that we feel can only be addressed in the most direct manner. Although we want you to promote your products and services, in no way will any recruitment be tolerated. This includes any MLM, religious ideology or organizations, mission-based organizations such as nonprofits, political campaign groups, unions, and advocacy groups down to the smallest local schools and committees.

Each session is monitored live and any violation of this and your session will be stopped and you will not be allowed to participate in a SheisMe event. There are plenty of other platforms where you can do this kind of work but SheisMe is not the place.

You can believe, donate, pledge or pray to anything you like; you just may not come here and convince others to do the same.

In appreciation,

Lisa Jo

about me.

I grew up in a home where staying small meant safety and being quiet was the rule. Later, I spent 40 years in corporate leadership, watching brilliant women silenced, overlooked, and aged out. I saw firsthand how patriarchal systems crush creativity, burn women out, and keep us small. And I knew something had to change.

That's why I built ShelsMe Global.

I'm on a mission to make the biggest impact possible in women's lives — helping women rise, lead, speak, and create lives that are powerful, safe, and free. ShelsMe is more than a conference. It's a sanctuary. A movement. A global community where women reclaim their voices, create financial independence, and build the kind of support and belonging we've all been missing.

What I do for you is give you the tools and the spaces to step fully into your leadership, claim your independence, and take your place in a global community of women who are changing the world. Because when women rise, the world rises with us.
