Is this an in person or virtual event?

100% Online.

It was our vision to build a platform for any woman with a message to be able to use SheisMe to broadcast it to the world and make the content accessible to any woman who has internet access, no matter where she lives.

I don't want to speak but I want to be part of this movement. How can I help?

There are a few ways you can help:

- You can sponsor the event.
- You can sell your products or services in the Marketplace.
- You can attend the conference.
- You can spread the word to your friends.
- You can tell your story and be included.
- You can support us in your social media posts.
- You can empower, inspire and uplift others at any opportunity.

How do I apply to be a speaker?

There is a speaker application at www.sheismeconference.com/application

Please send all information through the application. You can also send any attachments you would like to be reviewed as well as photos, recordings, etc.

Applications for the annual conference will be accepted through July 15, 2022. You can apply anytime to be considered for our many events.

What is the difference between a storyteller and a speaker?

You can be both!

A storyteller is anyone who submits a story to be included in our platform. It can be written, a video, an audio file, etc.

A speaker has applied for a speaking slot and has been chosen to present.

Is the speaking gig paid or unpaid.

Unpaid.

SheisMe is an opportunity for you to tell your story so that any woman that finds it knows that they aren't alone. We gather to share, to inspire, to empower each other.

How will I know if I'm chosen to be a speaker?

After July 15, all speaker submissions will be reviewed and notifications of acceptance will be sent out by July 20th.

The speaker lineup will then be posted on the website and social media, as well as, emailed to our list on July 22.
