

Money Conflicts in Marriage

Problem:

We love each other—but money arguments keep causing tension and resentment.

3-Step Solution:

1. Listen First — Understand your spouse's money story and fears.
2. Set Shared Goals — Decide what you both want for your future.
3. Lead with Grace — Choose peace over pride during money talks.

Bible Verse:

“Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor.” – Ecclesiastes 4:9

Action Steps:

- Schedule a 15-minute “money meeting” each week.
- Each share one financial win and one challenge.
- Pray together before every financial decision.
