Tatou Supper Club at 151 E. 50th St. has a non-stop array of entertainment planned just for you. The Jewish Single Night on Sundays. The always popular Ladies Night every Wednesday. A lot of Latin flavor on Sunday 21 and 28 of December and the very special New Year's Eve celebration. These and more every day. Just call 212-753-1144.

At The Blue Note you can catch hot jazz almost any time. In December you will find the world premiere of Chick Corea & Origins + Gary Burton starting Dec. 23. Celebrate a Wonderful New Year at the BN. January has The Blue Festival. 3 weeks starting with B.B. King Ruth Brown & Friends and Dr. John. In February The Latin Jazz Festival is coming! From Ray Barretto to Celia Cruz and Tito Puente in March. Lots of Fun at the BN. 212-475-8592

Rainbow & Stars presents till Jan. 03 Darlene Love with Dennis Ray. Her new holiday show "Love for the Holyday" marks her triumphal return to R&S. Her beautiful voice will enchant us! Call 212- 632-5000

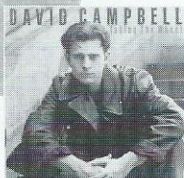

The Algonquin presents by popular demand Dorothy Parker's Social Notes. A chance to return to the roaring twenties through the performance of five short stories by Ms. Parker (i.e. The Sexes, Dusk Before Fireworks, The Last Tea.) To reserve a seat for Dec. 22 call 212 - 840-6800.

So you like some Cabaret music...Here you have the latest

Mr. Campbell is just sensational. This Australian boy has it all! He just was at Rainbow & Stars. If you missed him... Don't do it again.

Christian Nova
Walking Happy

Mr. Nova renders a fantastic performance on his first album. If you didn't see him at Don't tell Mama, shame on you...

Cabaret is alive and thriving in New York. Whether it is a sing-along at Eighty-Eights, Brandy's, Don't Tell Mama, The Duplex, a sit down dinner at the Algonquin or an evening in the clouds at Rainbow and Stars, you are bound to have a good time. Especially after a couple of cocktails! Why...you might even want to grab the mike and sing (don't try this at The Algonquin or Rainbow and Stars). There are shows nightly, we can't possibly list them all. Some are great, some are not. It doesn't really matter, just go and have fun. Try pot-luck and go hear someone you've never heard of. Maybe you'll get indigestion, maybe you'll find someone new to enjoy.
