

FALL BOOKS SPECIAL

BENJAMIN BRADLEY
DROPS TROU AT SPLASH!

MR. GAY
USA
WAS THE RUNNER-UP ROBBED?

SIR
LANCE
A LOT

NEW AUTHOR
BASS ON BOY-HUNTING, BAR-HOPPING,
BROADWAY AND BRITNEY

AUTUMN LEAVES

COZY UP WITH QUEER READS THIS FALL BY MARK PEIKERT

CARNAL SACRAMENTS BY PERRY BASS

Time stands still for Jeffrey Cooper, a successful businessman in 2075 who remains ageless, as long as he continues bringing money into the company. But stress is beginning to tell on him, and men are flitting in and out of his orderly life, disrupting it and him. Part sci-fi, part erotica, this is a fast and fascinating read. (Belhue Press)

THE HAIR-RAISING ADVENTURES OF JAYMS BLONDE

BY ROBERT W. CABELL
Hairdresser/secret agent Jaymes is (rather obviously, given the spelling of his name) gay, and runs the Pink Berets, a group determined to halt the evil machinations of an anti-environment group. Breezy and funny, Jaymes is a hero for every gay boy out there. (Universe)

WHEN YOU DON'T SEE ME

BY TIMOTHY JAMES BECK

There's no feeling quite like disappearing in NYC, and Beck captures it here. Nick exists in a dull routine of lowered expectations and rationed optimism, until he's forced to become a person again. It may be surprisingly easy to disappear in a big city, but it's always far more rewarding in the long run to get hurt. (Kensington)

THE LETTERS OF NOËL COWARD

EDITED BY BARRY DAY

Talk about "a talent to amuse"! These letters, telegrams, notes and various other forms of correspondence could serve as a capsule summary of entertainment in the 20th-century. All of Coward's friends and admirers are here, hilariously complimented or back-handed. (Knopf)

DIRTY LITTLE DRAWINGS

HARVEY REDDING,
ROBERT W. RICHARDS &
ROB HUGH ROSEN

This collection of art from the Leslie/Lohman Art Gallery's "Dirty Little Drawings" exhibit is a godsend for both fans of erotic art and lovers of the New York art scene. Stuffed with images that range from the graphic to the tame, from the gutter to the sublime, this is truly a miracle of hormones, testosterone and talent. (Bruno Gmünder)

SURROUNDED BY INSANITY

BY ROBERT A. HOFMANN

Yes, another collection of funny essays by a gay writer. But just because David Sedaris became famous with his doesn't mean he owns the monopoly on them. And lucky for us, otherwise we wouldn't have Hofmann's hilarious collection about preening gay men, oblivious family members and flaming wreaths. (Publish America)