

7-Day Devotional Plan: The Feast of Tabernacles – Dwelling with Elohim

Overview

This 7-Day Devotional Plan on the Feast of Tabernacles, or Sukkot, walks verse by verse through Leviticus 23:34-43, showing how each command in the Torah finds its fulfillment in the New Testament. Sukkot is one of Yahweh's most joyous appointed times. Each day invites you to reflect on Yahweh's presence, rejoice in His salvation, and look forward to the ultimate promise of dwelling with Him forever. Through Scripture, reflection, and prayer, you will rediscover Sukkot not just as an ancient Feast, but as a living testimony of joy, rest, sacrifice, harvest, rejoicing, and eternal hope in Messiah.

| Day 1: The Appointed Time of Sukkot                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Day 2: A Day of Sacred Rest                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:34John 7:37–39 Reflection:Sukkot begins with joy. Yahweh called Yahshar-el to dwell in booths as a reminder of His presence in the wilderness. Yahshua fulfills this by offering living water, the Set-apart Spirit, to all who believe. The Feast reminds us that Elohim desires not only to be near His people but to dwell within them. Prayer:Father, thank You for sending Yahshua, the Living Water. Fill my heart with Your Spirit, and let Your presence overflow through me to others. In Yahshua's name,So Be It. | Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:35Hebrews 4:9–10 Reflection:The sacred assembly of Sukkot was not an ordinary meeting but a divinely appointed gathering. It foreshadows the unity of Messiah's body today, coming together to worship, pray, and hear His Word. This day of rest points us to the true Sabbath found in Yahshua, where we cease striving and trust in His finished work. Prayer:Yahweh, teach me to rest in Your Son. May my life not be marked by striving in my own strength, but by peace that flows from trusting in Yahshua's completed work. In Yahshua's name, So Be It. |
| Day 3: Living Sacrifices                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Day 4: Shadows and Substance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:36Romans 12:1 Reflection:Israel offered sacrifices daily throughout Feast of Tabernacles. In Messiah, we are called to bring ourselves as living sacrifices. Our bodies, thoughts, and actions become an offering of devotion and obedience. Worship is no longer confined to an altar of stone but lived out daily in surrendered lives. Prayer:Abba, I offer myself to You today as a living sacrifice. Use my words, my time, and my actions for Your glory. May my life                                                      | Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:37–38Colossians 2:16–17 Reflection:The moedim of Yahweh were shadows pointing toward greater realities. Sukkot was a rehearsal for the day when Yahweh would tabernacle with His people in Messiah. The shadow gives way to substance in Yahshua, yet the Feasts remain testimonies of Elohim's covenant faithfulness. Prayer:Father Yahweh, thank You for revealing the fullness of Your plan in Yahshua. Help me to see how the patterns in Your Word point me to Him and to walk faithfully in                                                                |

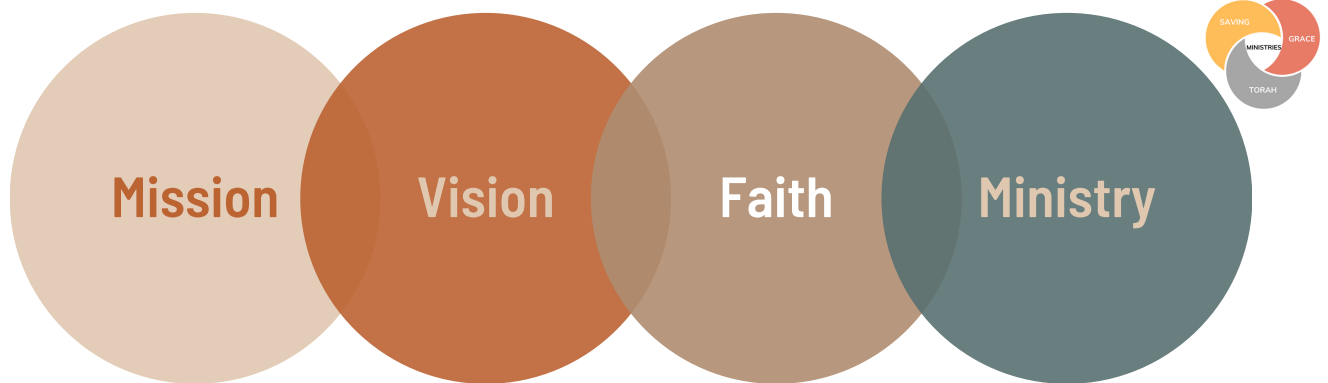

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| be pleasing in Your sight. In Yahshua's name, So Be It.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | that understanding. In Yahshua's name, So Be It.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Day 5: The Feast of Ingathering                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Day 6: Rejoicing Before Yahweh                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:39Revelation 14:14–16 Reflection: Sukkot was also called the Feast of Ingathering, a time of harvest. It foreshadowed the final harvest when Messiah gathers souls into His eternal Kingdom. Each sheaf of grain and each piece of fruit was a reminder of a far greater harvest, the gathering of people from every nation who guard His commands and keep the belief of Yahshua. Prayer: Yahweh of the Harvest, use me in Your work of gathering souls into Your Kingdom. Let me be faithful to share Your Word and rejoice in the harvest You bring. In Yahshua's name, So Be It. | Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:40Philippians 4:4Revelation 7:9 Reflection: Sukkot was marked by joy, with branches waved in celebration. This anticipates the heavenly vision where redeemed multitudes rejoice before the Lamb with palm branches. Rejoicing in Yahweh is not momentary, it is eternal. True joy flows from His presence. Prayer: Yahweh, teach me to rejoice always, not in circumstances but in You. Give me a heart of thanksgiving and a spirit of worship that reflects the joy of Your salvation. In Yahshua's name, So Be It. |
| Day 7: Dwelling with Elohim Forever                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Scripture Reading:Leviticus 23:41–43John 1:14Revelation 21:3 Reflection: Living in booths reminded Yahsrael of their temporary wilderness journey. John declares that the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. Revelation promises the final fulfillment: Yahweh will dwell permanently with His people. Sukkot points beyond earthly life to the eternal dwelling with Elohim in the New Jerusalem.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

Prayer:

Eternal Father, thank You for sending Your Son to dwell among us and for the promise that You will one day dwell with us forever. Keep my heart fixed on that hope as I journey through this life. In Yahshua's name, So Be It.

About Saving Grace Torah Ministries

Saving Grace Torah Ministries is a loving, down-to-earth, and vibrant multigenerational, multicultural ministry guided by the transformative power of Elohim's salvation by grace through faith in Yahshua and the profound significance of Torah observance in our modern lives.

Our Mission

Saving Grace Torah Ministries makes disciples, equips saints for kingdom building, and transforms communities by teaching and following all that Yahshua Messiah commanded us to do in Scripture.

Our Vision

We aim to affirm the Hebraic roots of our belief by growing obedient followers of our Messiah Immanuel through the word of Elohim's grace.

Our Faith

We believe in one Ėlohim, who revealed Himself through Yahshua and sent His Ruach Ha-Kodesh to be upon us, in us, and with us. Eternal salvation in the New Kingdom is available to everyone through Yahshua, regardless of race or ethnicity. We identify as children and Saints of the Most High, circumcised of heart, not as "Gentile," "Christian," or "Jewish" believers. We are part of the remnant of believers, both natural Hebrews and non-Hebrews, united in Messiah. In these last days, some from both the natural and wild Olive trees are being grafted in among Yahshar-el (Yahsrael) as Saints of Ėlohim.

Our Ministry

We observe the Sabbath as set-apart and gather as an assembly (church) weekly and at other Appointed Times to worship Ėlohim, uplift, and equip the Saints. Saving Grace Torah Ministries is actively committed to reaching out to persons:

Who do not know Yahshua and do not follow the Torah;

Who know Yahshua and are being led by the Set-apart Spirit to follow the Torah; and,

Who follow the Torah and are being led to know Yahshua.