A Peek Inside

Asa's Full Cup is a tragi-comedy story told from the omniscient narrative point of view. Asa the first of four children had to contend with having to train her three siblings after their parent's demise. She plunged herself into prostitution to train and ensure that her sibling had the best education and a settled home.

Her payback was saddening to her when in her time of need she did not see any of them coming to her assistance, rather they staged a reunion that did not include her but ended up being their path to destruction and untimely end.

Asa got her deserved reward as she eventually bounced back when her friend Funmi supported and assisted her. How did it all unfold?
