

DEAR RADIANT ICON,

This isn't about heartbreak — it's about courage. It's about loving yourself so deeply that no one else's choices can dim your light. You didn't lose anything — you found yourself.

You led with your heart, you dared to be vulnerable, and you stood your ground. That takes more strength than most people ever know.

Now is your time to rise. To reclaim your power. To live boldly, unapologetically, and radiantly.

Remember: the story isn't about who left — it's about who stayed. You stayed.

Dare to be iconic always.

Love,

Amanda
