III. DESCRIPTION AND SYMBOLISM OF THE SEAL

The Great Seal of the Ben Ishmael Nation contains the following sacred and historical elements:

- A five-pointed golden star nested within a crescent, affirming Semitic ancestry, divine covenant, and rightful inheritance through Ishmael, progenitor of the Arab peoples.
- A pair of crossed scimitars at the base, representing the martial right of tribal defense, and the ancestral lineage through Tamim, Kaab, and Sulayim — warrior houses of the Arabian interior.
- An open sacred book, representing the reconstitution of erased records, the literacy of a persecuted nation, and the survival of divine law beneath the ashes of institutional denial.
- Eight red and black arrows pointed outward from the center, marking the eight directions of exile, dispersion, and tribal reassembly — north, south, east, west, and the intercardinal paths of forced migration and resistance.
- A background featuring the African continent, from which the original Ishmaelite and Moorish migrations emanated toward the Americas.
- A crimson border bearing the golden inscription:
“GREAT SEAL OF BEN ISHMAEL NATION – FOUNDED IN EXILE, RESTORED BY LAW”
- A golden ribbon below reading:
“Per Divinum Jus Sanguinis” (By Divine Right of Blood)
with the restored tribal timeline:
“1785–1905 Migration • Restored 2025”

Every visual element in this seal is legally and spiritually anchored in the genetic, tribal, and historical record — both as a defense and as a declaration.
