Our goal is to allow incarcerated individuals to send meaningful gifts to their loved ones on the outside. The business is owned by a family who are affected by incarceration, and we know how hard it is to connect with people you love from inside those walls. We also know how meaningful it is to receive these things from your incarcerated loved ones. Even the smallest gesture can mean the world.

Gifts from Incarcerated Hearts is not responsible for breaches of no contact orders by the incarcerated individual. It is the responsibility of the incarcerated individual to adhere to no contact orders and all applicable laws and statutes in their state. We are a business that provides a service in exchange for payment.
