Major Crimes Investigations: From 911 Call to Courtroom

Vista Law Enforcement Training and Consulting, LLC, in cooperation with ????, has scheduled this 40-hour POST-approved training program, titled “Major Crimes Investigations: From 911 Call to Courtroom.” This training program is presented by both current and retired detectives, supervisors/commanders, crime scene investigators, and attorneys, who are experts and have decades of experience investigating these types of incidents. Topics include:

- Guidelines for first responders (officers and supervisors) on securing the scene, preserving evidence, and managing initial interactions with victims, witnesses, and suspects
- Detailed instruction on properly documenting and collecting physical evidence
- The role of forensic science, from DNA analysis to ballistics
- Importance of cyber-related evidence, from cell phones to computers
- Reliable methods used in interviewing victims, witnesses, and suspects
- Techniques for thorough and accurate report writing, ensuring all investigative steps are well-documented for trial
- Preparation for court proceedings and how to testify effectively
- Classroom instruction coupled with interactive role-play based on the major crime selected

This program is designed for law enforcement investigators who will be trained in the response, investigation, and criminal court preparation/proceedings in a specific major crime (e.g. equivocal death, homicide, sexual assault, kidnapping, robbery, etc.). This training program starts with receiving the 911 call and continues through the court process. The hosting agency can select the major crime course attendees will investigate.
