Death Investigations: A Guide for the Scene Investigator

Vista Law Enforcement Training and Consulting, LLC, in cooperation with ????, has scheduled this 4-hour POST-approved training program, titled “Death Investigations: A Guide for the Scene Investigator.” This training program is presented by current and retired first responder personnel who are expert forensic scientists, crime scene investigators, coroners/medical examiners, homicide/death scene detectives, and supervisors/commanders. Topics include:

- Reasons why death investigators should follow the 29 national guidelines outlined in the National Institutes of Justice 1999 publication/updated in 2011
- Detailed analysis of the 29 national guidelines
- Legal limitations and authority death investigators have at death scenes
- Detailed analysis of necessary investigative tools and equipment
- Detailed analysis of proper procedures when arriving at the scene
- Detailed analysis of how to document and evaluate the scene
- Detailed analysis of how to document and evaluate the body
- Detailed analysis of how to establish and record decedent profile information
- Detailed analysis of how to complete the scene investigation

Coroners and medical examiners have an important and independent role in death scenes. This includes having the necessary equipment, proper procedures for arriving at a death scene, documenting and evaluating the scene, documenting and evaluating the body, recording the decedent's information, and completing the scene investigation. This course provides the most up-to-date information about the issues confronting death investigators today. These tasks serve as the foundation of the guide for death scene investigators.
