Report Writing for Supervisors/Commanders

Vista Law Enforcement Training and Consulting, LLC, in cooperation with ????, has scheduled this 8-hour POST-approved training program, titled “Report Writing for Supervisors/Commanders.” This training program is presented by current and retired law enforcement investigators and supervisors/commanders, who are experts in preparing and approving complex investigative reports from multi-jurisdictional homicide investigations to officer-involved shootings, in-custody death incidents, and other types of investigations. Topics include:

- Overview of the role of reports emphasizing accountability, transparency, and legal compliance
- Understanding the specific documentation requirements for major incidents and high-profile cases from a supervisor and commander perspective
- Examination of legal standards and requirements that apply to first responder reports, including use of force documentation and evidence handling
- Techniques for reviewing team member reports, including how to provide constructive feedback and ensure necessary revisions
- How to use report reviews as a tool for identifying training gaps or performance issues within the team

This program is designed for all first responders (sworn and civilian) supervisors or commanders responsible for reviewing and approving reports. Attendees will review various reports for discussion in the classroom setting.
