Use of Force Investigations for Police Supervisors and Administrators

Vista Law Enforcement Training and Consulting, LLC, in cooperation with ????, has scheduled this 8-hour POST-approved training program, titled "Use of Force Investigations for Police Supervisors and Administrators." This training program is presented by current and retired law enforcement supervisors/commanders, who are experts in conducting, supervising, and managing use-of-force incidents. Topics include:

- The legal limitations in the interviewing of law enforcement officers in both criminal and non-criminal use of force investigations including the Missouri Police Officer Bill of Rights
- Department policies/procedures in both criminal and non-criminal use of force investigations
- The term "Garrity Rights" and how these rights apply to government employees that are part of the investigative process of internal law enforcement investigations against both civilian and commissioned law enforcement personnel
- Tracking use of force incidents and the importance of "Early Warning Systems"
- How to manage a crisis with the media and the public after a "bad" use of force incident
- The types of disciplinary actions that can be levied against law enforcement officers found to have committed misconduct because of a use of force incident
- Proper procedures for presenting an investigation to prosecuting attorney's office in the event a law enforcement officer is suspected of committing a criminal offense relative to a use of force

This program is designed for first-line supervisors, mid-level managers, and police chiefs/sheriffs, who have the responsibility to investigate, supervise, and manage use-of-force incidents. This includes both criminal and administrative investigations. The new Missouri Police Officer Bill of Rights will be covered in depth.
