Reports and PC Statements: Writing for the Conviction

Vista Law Enforcement Training and Consulting, LLC, in cooperation with ????, has scheduled this 8-hour POST-approved training program, titled "Reports and PC Statements: Writing for the Conviction." This training program is presented by current and retired law enforcement investigators and supervisors/commanders, who are experts in preparing complex investigative reports from multi-jurisdictional homicide investigations to officer-involved shootings, in-custody death incidents, and other types of investigations. Topics include:

- The construction of initial and investigative reports, and the inclusion of complete investigative details
- Detailing the elements of a crime in a law enforcement report
- 10 common errors in the preparation of reports
- Proper use of nouns, verbs, and punctuation
- Vehicle and person identifications and descriptions
- Legal refreshers and presentation of the first responder report to the legal system
- Analysis and discussions of actual initial and investigative reports in the classroom setting
- Proper way to document crime scenes/evidence and prepare reports detailing investigative findings
- Practical preparation of reports and probable cause statements of various and different incidents by watching/reviewing scenarios, typing the reports/PC statements, and then reviewing/critiquing

This program is designed for all first responders who must prepare reports in criminal incidents. This is a "less lecture, more report writing" course. Attendees should bring a laptop computer with Microsoft Word that can be used for the course.
