Forensic Anthropology for Death Investigators

Vista Law Enforcement Training and Consulting, LLC, in cooperation with ????, has scheduled this 4-hour POST-approved training program, titled “Forensic Anthropology for Death Investigators.” This training program is presented by current and retired first responder personnel who are expert forensic scientists, crime scene investigators, coroners/medical examiners, homicide/death scene detectives, and supervisors/commanders. Topics include:

- An overview of Forensic Anthropology and understanding of various related terminology
- Human Osteology (identifying the differences between human and non-human remains)
- Forensic Taphonomy (what happens to the body after death, including exposure to the elements)
- Determining time since death; sex, age, and ancestry; and trauma assessment
- Discussions and analysis of human and non-human remains
- Discussion and analysis of actual Forensic Anthropology cases investigated by class instructors
- Practical, hands-on biological lab analysis of human and non-human remains

Coroners and medical examiners play a critical role in evaluating, documenting, and processing death scenes. This course will provide death investigators with comprehensive information that delves into the crucial aspects of the investigation process surrounding the skeletal analysis of human remains.
