

COFFEE

Hi, Friends!

Welcome to the weekly newsletter

I wanted to start a Thursday newsletter where I update all of you on our adventure into small business ownership. We wanted to include you all on our journey and hope you enjoy these future newsletters and updates. My wife has come up with the headline of a "Thankful Thursday newsletter". We would love to highlight you guys and some of the amazing things happening in your life too. This company would not be possible without you and we want to shine a positive light onto all of our amazing friends. So if you have something you want to rave about or want to be highlighted or even want to give someone a shout out please email me back at ryan.lose@ryanscoffeehouse.com and let me know what it is. I look forward to reading all of your life events and positive thoughts.

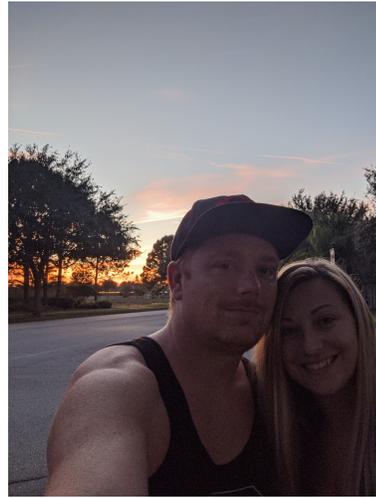

Business update

We officially got our permits to open up our mobile coffee unit and will be looking into places for us to set up shop. As of right now we are still just a small family run business and will have limited hours and days.

Thankful Thursday

As our first edition of our thankful thursday newsletter I would like to be the first one to give shout outs and highlight positivity.

I want to thank my beautiful wife for all she has done and all the support she gives. I would also like to thank all of you, as cliché as that is I truly, truly mean it. This is something that we have been wanting to do and have been working hard on putting into motion and with out you guys we would not be having the opportunity to even write this news letter. So thank you.
