

A simple poem about the life of a submissive male and his dominant wife

Kneel DOWN
slave and read this poem

A woman with long, straight, light-colored hair is seen from the back, wearing a black blazer. She is standing in a bathroom, applying lipstick to her lips. Her reflection is visible in a large mirror above a white sink. The sink has a chrome faucet and a stack of folded white towels on the counter. A white hair dryer is on the left side of the counter. The wall is a light beige color with a light switch. To the right, a doorway leads to another room with a wooden floor and a white mat.

and tell me if it's like

"YOUR Home"

Roses are
RED slave,

violets
are Blue,

now clean
my house
RIGHT,

or YOU'LL be Black

and BLUE!

"YES
MISTRESS!"

A woman with long, straight, light-colored hair is seen from the back, wearing a black blazer. She is standing in a bathroom, applying lipstick to her lips. Her reflection is visible in a large mirror above a white sink. The sink has a chrome faucet and a stack of folded white towels on the counter. To the right, a doorway leads to another room. The lighting is warm and indoor.

Well?
IS it
slave,

IS that
poem true?

Is THIS
the way
that she treats
YOU?

GOOD!
