

Clove Bud Essential Oil

Botanical Name: Syzygium aromaticum L.

Plant Part: Buds

Extraction Method: Steam Distilled

Origin: Indonesia

Color: Pale yellow to yellow clear liquid.

Consistency: Medium

Note: Middle

Strength of Aroma: Medium

Aromatic Scent: Clove Bud Essential Oil smells spicy and rich like actual cloves

Blends With: Blends well with other spice oils including Cinnamon Bark , Nutmeg, Citronella, Grapefruit, Lemon, Orange, Peppermint, Rosemary, and Rose.

Common Uses:

Clove Bud Essential Oil is an effective agent for cognitive support and brain health, Arthritis, asthma, bronchitis, rheumatism, sprains, strains, toothache, and is helpful when battling flu and colds.

Cautions:

Tisserand and Young indicate that when using Clove Bud Oil, there is moderate risk for mucous membrane irritation, may inhibit blood clotting and pose a drug interaction hazard. It may cause embryotoxicity. There is a moderate risk of skin sensitization, and Tisserand and Young recommend a dermal maximum of 0.5%. They advise not to use topically on children age 2 or younger.

Never ingest or use an essential oil undiluted unless advised by your health care provider or certified aromatherapist. Keep essential oils away from infants, children, and all pets.

