

MAKE MY MIND MOVE ON

I can't make my mind move on,
this dream of you,
has me running scared,
Why don't I see,
It is not meant to be.

Still, I can't make my mind move on,
each time you are near,
brings you closer to my heart,
You must be a memory,
It is not meant to be,

Still, I can't make my mind move on each moment with you, keeps me wanting more,
You can only hurt me,
It is not meant to be.

But, still I can't make my mind move on...
