

SENSATIONAL MOMENT

You don't see me, don't see that I care...

I can see you have gone.

You can't see me, can't see the love...

You have left me alone.

You don't want me, my desire is for you...

I can see you have gone.

You can't love me, can't feel the love...

You have left me alone.

I'm missing your voice, your embrace...

Waiting and wanting to see your face.

What a sensational moment that would be...

To feel you, to have you here with me.

You don't need me, I long for you...

I can see you have gone.

You can't see me, can't see the love...

You have left me alone.
