

Ironically, Clinton emails are surfacing again as the Liberals fend off accusations at home of improper fundraising.

This time it's not Russia, it's Canada

While Hillary Clinton was Secretary of State, the Clinton Foundation received tens of millions in "donations" from Saudi princes and other Islamist dictatorships. Officials from Qatar promised a $1 million donation and sought a private meeting with Bill Clinton. The gift was received, and never declared to the State Department. During that time, Clinton received a fee to speak to a conference hosted by the progressive think-tank Canada 2020

And that's where Prime Minister Justin Trudeau comes in. In 2016 we learned two disturbing revelations about the way Trudeau raises money.

1st - Trudeau said he gets lobbied at Liberal Party fundraisers

Canada2020 is the lobbyist group connection. The organization bills itself as an independent, not-for-profit, progressive think tank — though its president, Tom Pitfield, is a childhood friend of Trudeau's, was the Liberals' chief digital strategist in the last election, and is married to Liberal party president Anna Gainey.

2nd - we learned about foreign donations to his family's charity, the Trudeau Foundation.

According to the Globe and Mail, Zhang Bin, an advisor to the Chinese Communist government, attended the dinner and it was soon thereafter announced Zhang Bin and another wealthy Chinese businessman, Niu Gensheng, would donate $1-million "to honour the memory and leadership" of Pierre Trudeau, would be donating to Trudeau's pet causes. Zhang donated $750,000 to the University of Montreal, $200,000 to the Trudeau Foundation and $50,000 to build a statue of Justin's father, former Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau.

A parliamentary aide to Trudeau reached out to a number of Liberals, asking them to work potential connections to the Clinton circle. Gerald Butts, (now resigned: <https://www.cbc.ca/news/politics/trudeau-wilson-raybould-attorney-general-snc-lavalin-1.5014271>) over "Justice System Interference" was among those who received the message. He forwarded it to a friend in Washington with a simple request: "Help!!!" That friend from the U.S. think-tank Center for American Progress, Matt Browne, forwarded it to John Podesta and Huma Abedin.

The most powerful woman in Canadian politics is Top Aide Katie Telford, the only still serving member of Trudeau's caucus who has served loyally since 2015. She testified this past Friday on behalf of the Prime Ministers Office. She has successfully steered Trudeau through two more wins, a global pandemic, NAFTA negotiations and a growing list of controversies. Chinese foreign interference in Canadian elections — the latest controversy to dog the Liberal government. More specifically the allegations are of Trudeau's government in 2019 knew just 3 weeks before the election, and again in 2021 about CCP interventions in at least 11 campaigns.

Of course Telford says she can't 'speak to specifics'. She also said improper release of intelligence "can put lives at risk" and that "it's in Canada's national interest to keep this information protected. Intelligence rarely paints a full, concrete, or actionable picture," she told the committee."

According to the NSIA The national security and intelligence advisor is a public servant who advises the prime minister of Canada on security and intelligence matters.

- Between October 22, 2018 and March 20, 2023 Trudeau received six briefings from either his NSIA or CSIS;
- Between 2018 and now, cabinet or a cabinet committee was briefed by senior public servants eight times;
- Between August 15, 2018 and February 24, 2023 specific individual ministers—including most recently Intergovernmental Affairs Minister Dominic LeBlanc and International Trade Minister Mary Ng— received 15 briefings from either CSIS or the chief of the Communications Security Establishment (CSE);
- The prime minister's office received two briefings from the NSIA and CSIS, one in September 2022 and one in February 2023 specifically on foreign interference in elections; and
- Cleared political party representatives received four briefings between June and September 2019 and another nine briefings between July and October 2021.

Last Tuesday the CEO and entire board of directors of the “Trudeau Foundation” resigned in masse citing “politicization of allegations”

<https://montreal.ctvnews.ca/ceo-and-board-at-pierre-elliott-trudeau-foundation-resign-en-bloc-1.6350449>

Trudeau claims all allegations are “foundation-less” (Imagine that) yet CSIS was still attempting to report this as late as March of 2023 <https://www.theglobeandmail.com/politics/article-csis-uncovered-chinese-plan-to-donate-to-pierre-elliott-trudeau/>

Meanwhile the Globe and Mail reports and I agree, too many lines converge at the intersection of the Trudeau family: <https://www.theglobeandmail.com/politics/article-too-many-lines-converge-at-the-intersection-of-trudeau-and-foundation/>

As reported on April 13th 2023 by Carson Jerema: Trudeau Foundation deserves its fate

Several board members now say 'politicization' excuse for them resigning is 'a bunch of lies'

The foundation is allegedly funded mostly from interest generated by a $125-million endowment the government granted it in 2002, but now has an estimated value of nearly 1 Billion.

And we can't forget the 2 Bio-lab spies, Dr. Xiangguo Qiu accepting a Governor General's Innovation Award at Rideau Hall in 2018. She, her husband, Keding Cheng, and an unknown number of her students from China were removed from Canada's only level-4 lab on July 5 amidst an RCMP investigation. No one has since heard a thing with Trudeau's cabinet blocking investigations. Interesting side note, these same scientists in this same lab developed the new "Ebola Vaccine" in 2018 <https://www.cbc.ca/news/health/second-opinion-ebola-vaccine-1.4672807>

"It appears that what you might well call Chinese agents infiltrated one of the highest prized national security elements when it comes to biosecurity and biodefence," said Christian Leuprecht, a security expert and professor at the Royal Military College and Queen's University.

Considering in 2009 a former researcher at the National Microbiology Laboratory in Winnipeg accused of trying to smuggle genetic material from the Ebola virus across the Manitoba-North Dakota border this "issue" is not new. <https://www.cbc.ca/news/world/charged-with-smuggling-in-u-s-ex-winnipeg-researcher-cops-a-plea-1.820854> and not just a Canadian Problem: <https://www.science.org/content/article/exclusive-major-us-cancer-center-ousts-asian-researchers-after-nih-flags-their-foreign>

Trudeau's response, assign another family friend to "cover it up" (...no you can't even make this up). Officially it looks like word salad: <https://pm.gc.ca/en/news/news-releases/2023/03/21/prime-minister-announces-mandate-of-independent-special-rapporteur>

Unofficially:

<https://www.iheartradio.ca/cjad/news/trudeau-names-former-gg-david-johnston-as-new-independent-special-rapporteur-1.19374617>
<https://tnc.news/2023/03/16/db-special-rapporteur/>

They have gone way too far, covered way too much, Trudeau is drowning, his support is gone, the msm is fading fast, his loyalists are abandoning ship, his fathers legacy foundation got Hiroshima'd, no one wants WWII

we get to the good part, all of this is why Chris "Sky" Saccoccia, activist turned Toronto Mayoral Candidate in Canada's largest, most diverse, most internationally renowned city is reaping the benefits of the "Trump Effect" in potentially the most interesting and historic election in Canadian history. After the sudden resignation in disgrace of incumbent John Tory the job is up for grabs in a "By Election". That means it's a straight up popularity contest between Chris Sky and 37 "Liberal/Democrat clone troopers and one "extreme right Candidate who has in the past 3 years been arrest 26 times, charged more than 60 times, had hundreds of thousands of $ in fines, spent half a million on lawyer, been banned from flying from most Canadian airports, and been found guilty on not a single charge yet. He can't be bought, he can't be intimidated, he only gets stronger and more convicted. This is how many times this man has refused to bow to the cabal, how many times they have tried to silence him, and how afraid they are now about him running the biggest city in Canada with an annual budget more than many countries and representing more than 7 million residents in Canada's most multicultural city and they are all saying enough together. is why I'm underground in a place I am in factual danger of being arrested in if they run my name and why there is no other place I would rather be because this is who we are as Canadians, we are literally the "here hold my beer and watch me crew". If Chris wins this you can say welcome back Canada and I will be here when it happens.
