

Did You Know?

The National Sergeant-at-Arms Does More Than Call Meetings to Order!

Many members think the National Sergeant-at-Arms is only responsible for maintaining order during meetings—but that's just one part of the job!

The National Sergeant-at-Arms also helps:

- Ensure meetings are conducted professionally and respectfully.
- Promote compliance with the organization's Constitution, Bylaws, and policies.
- Educate members on risk management and anti-hazing practices.
- Support a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every Soror.
- Encourage accountability, integrity, and professionalism throughout the organization.

The National Sergeant-at-Arms is a guardian of our organization's standards and plays a vital role in protecting the integrity of Lambda Kappa Omega.

Remember:

Order creates efficiency. Accountability builds trust. Respect strengthens sisterhood.

Think About It!

Question:

What are three responsibilities of the National Sergeant-at-Arms besides maintaining order during meetings?

Bonus Challenge: Share one way you can support the National Sergeant-at-Arms in helping maintain a safe, respectful, and professional environment within Lambda Kappa Omega.
