

Thinking Outside the Box- the first thought that comes to mind is probably wrong- think,think, think!

One of your Big sisters tells you to mail them 1 dollar every day with the date on it in black marker. You call your dean, and she says yes, you can complete the task. However, she tells you, you are permitted to give cash. How do you achieve this task?

---

---

---

---

You are at a meeting at your big sister's house, and she hands you a fork and tells you to go to the kitchen and bring her water back on this fork. How do you complete the task?

---

---

---

---

You are reciting the Lambda Bets, and Your Big sister stops you and tells you to recite the backward. How do you complete the task?

---

---

---

There are three-line sisters. Their mother, Tina Jefferson, is helping them through their process. Two days later, a fourth girl joins the line, and her mother's name is Tina Jefferson. How is this possible, and who is Tina Jefferson?

---

---

---

Your big sister asks you what your favorite color is. You say blue. She then goes to your Line sisters (LS) and asks them their favorite color. What is their response, and why?

---

---

---

You have built a relationship and are starting to get to know and trust your big sisters. You walk into a room and see a chair in the middle of the floor, a hammer, and two ropes; your sister blindfolds you and sits you in the chair. What are they about to do to you? And what would your thoughts?

---

---

---